

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

HYMN BOOK.

O praise ye the Lord ! prepare your glad voice
His praise in the great assembly to sing :
In their great Creator let all men rejoice,
And children of God be glad in their King.

THE following Collection of Hymns was prepared for the worshippers at the Warren Street and Pitts Street Chapels. It is offered to the public at the request of certain of our friends, who think it may prove acceptable in Sunday Schools, Families, or some of our smaller Churches. Simplicity and cheapness were among our objects in compiling it. Should the collection be found of service in other circles than our own, we should rejoice to see it extended wherever such a book is wanted.

In aiming at simplicity we have endeavored to avoid whatever might seem tame or puerile. Of hymns written expressly for children, we have found few that we were willing to adopt. We have borrowed largely from such writers as Watts, in whose days Sabbath Schools and services for children were unknown.

If we have secured the simplicity we sought, we hardly need say that others may find the collection as serviceable to them as it is to children. What hymns do we all love or prize more—what hymns more surely and gently unseal the fountain of the heart, than the hymns of our childhood, the hymns we repeated or sang in the freshness and innocence of the morning of life?

In the hope that it may be of service in the cause of Christ and the Church — in the hope that it may awaken sacred and pleasant thoughts in many a bosom, promoting devotional feeling in all, and forming a happy link between childhood and age — and with our prayer to God for its usefulness, our little collection is committed to the world.

NOTE TO THE SECOND EDITION.

ALL the hymns inserted in the first edition are found in this, in precisely the same order. The only change in them is made by the addition, in a few cases, of one or two verses. Nearly fifty hymns have been added, together with an index of subjects. The favor with which the collection has been received, has rendered it necessary to put forth this new edition. With the desire that it may prove still further useful, it is again committed to the world.

Another six days' work is done,	29
Assembled in our school once more,	22
As the sun's enlivening ray,	44
As the sweet flower that scents the morn,	228
As bodies, when the soul is dead,	265
As when the weary traveller gains,	242
Author of good, we rest on thee,	111
A voice from the desert comes sounding,	125
Awake, my soul, and with the sun,	30
Awake, my soul, lift up thine eyes,	167
Awake, my soul, stretch every nerve,	166
Before Jehovah's awful throne,	39
Begin, my soul, th' exalted lay,	55
Behold! another year begins,	218
Behold th' amazing sight,	140
Behold the beauteous western light,	224
Behold the morning sun,	26
Behold the Prince of Peace,	128
Behold the Savior on the cross,	258
Behold us, Lord, with humble fear,	38
Behold where, in a mortal form,	136
Be it my only wisdom here,	189
Be joyful in God, all ye lands of the earth,	62
Beset with snares on every hand,	193
Be still, my heart! these anxious cares,	268
Be thou, O God, by night, by day,	235
Be thou, O God, exalted high,	17
Be with me, Lord, where'er I go,	101
Beyond, beyond that boundless sea,	97
Blest are the meek, he said,	140
Blest are the sons of peace,	206
Blest be the everlasting God,	143
Blest be the tie that binds,	200
Blest instructor, from thy ways,	174
Blest is the man who fears the Lord,	120
Bright was the guiding star that led,	122
But who shall see that glorious day,	249

Lord, how secure and blest are they,.....	244
Lord, in the morning thou shalt hear,	32
Lord, I would own thy tender care,	165
Lord, may I ne'er in youth be led,	221
Lord of nature, source of light,	44
Lord, teach a little child to pray,	186
Lord, thou hast searched and seen me through,	276
Lord, thou art good; all nature shows,	76
Lord, thou wilt hear me when I pray,	51
Lord, we adore thy wondrous name,	104
Lord, what a feeble piece,	217
Lord, what offering shall we bring,	204
Lord, when my raptured thought surveys,	74
Love divine, all love excelling,	92
Mark the soft falling snow,	149
Mighty God, another day,	53
Mistaken souls who dream of heaven,	264
Morning breaks upon the tomb,	141
My dear Redeemer and my Lord,	138
My Father! cheering name,	121
My Father, let me hear thy voice,	177
My few revolving years,	216
My God, how endless is thy love,	50
My God, I thank thee, may no thought,	121
My God, my King, thy various praise,	70
My God, my strength, my hope,	190
My God, permit me not to be,	104
My God, permit my tongue,	103
My God, the Father of mankind,	269
My God, whene'er my longing heart,	276
My God, thy boundless love I praise,	86
My God was with me all this night,	24
My helper, God, I bless his name,	212
My helper, and my King,	66

When daily I kneel down to pray,
 When home I seek, and sweet repose,
 When I can read my title clear,
 When Israel, of the Lord beloved,
 When I with curious eyes survey,
 When I with pleasing wonder stand,
 When present sufferings pain our hearts,
 When Jesus Christ was here below,
 When overwhelmed with grief,
 When power divine in mortal form,
 When quiet in my house I sit,
 When storms hang o'er the Christian's head,
 When to the house of God we go,
 When the spark of life is waning,
 When the morning bells,
 When we devote our youth to God,
 Therefore should man, frail child of clay,
 While shepherds watched their flocks by night,
 While thee I seek, protecting Power,
 While through this changing world,
 While with ceaseless course the sun,
 Who is thy neighbor? he whom thou,
 Why do I thus perplex,
 Why sinks my weak, desponding mind,
 Why do we waste on trifling cares,
 Why should we dwell on things so small,

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

C. M.

Commencing Hymns.

To Thee, whose temple is all space ;
Whose altar, earth, sea, skies ;
One chorus let all beings raise,
All nature's incense rise.

L. M.

Be thou, O God, exalted high ;
And, as thy glory fills the sky,
So let it be on earth displayed,
Till thou art here, as there, obeyed.

S. M.

To God, the only wise,
Our Saviour and our King,
Let all who dwell below the skies
Their grateful praises sing.

Salutes my waking eyes,
Once more, my voice, thy tribute pay
To Him who rules the skies.

2 Night unto night his name repeats;
The day renews the sound,
Wide as the heaven on which he sits
To turn the seasons round.

3 O God, let all my hours be thine,
Whilst I enjoy the light;
Then shall my sun in smiles decline
And bring a pleasant night.

Sabbath Morning.

1 WELCOME, welcome, quiet mornin'
Welcome is this holy day;
Now the Sabbath morn, returning,
Says a week has passed away.

2 Let me think how time is passing
Soon the longest life departs!
-- Human is abiding,

Or the clouds each other chasing
Over yonder quiet sky.

- 5 Father, now one prayer I raise thee;
Give an humble, grateful heart;
Never let me cease to praise thee,—
Never from thy fear depart.
- 6 Then, when years are gathered o'er me,
And the world is sunk in shade,
Heaven's bright realm will rise before me;
There my treasure will be laid.

H. M.
Sabbath Morning.

- 1 WELCOME, delightful morn,
Thou day of sacred rest;
I hail thy kind return:
Lord, make these moments blest.
From low delights, and mortal toys,
I soar to reach immortal joys.
- 2 Now may the King descend,
And fill his throne of grace;
Thy sceptre, Lord, extend,
While saints address thy face:
Let sinners feel thy quickening word,
And learn to know and fear the Lord.
- 3 Descend, celestial Dove,
With all thy quickening powers;
Disclose a Saviour's love,
And bless these sacred hours:
Then shall my soul new life obtain,
Nor Sabbaths be indulged in vain.

drest with thy kindness from above
Another week has passed away

2 Grant us, O Lord! a grateful heart
To feel thy goodness and obey
Ne'er may we from thy love depart
Ne'er may we leave thy heaven

3 Grant us, this day, a willing mind
To learn what thou would'st have
And how we may thy favor find,
And love and serve each other

4 Thy happy children may we live,
Thy happy children may we die
To all may God, our Father, give
A home of peace above the sky

L. M.
Morning.

1 ALMIGHTY God, by thy great power
I hail again the morning hour;
How fair the green fields meet me
How sweet the birds sing in the

And I rejoice that others share
The gift, the blessing, and the prayer.

- 4 And though a child, and weak I be,
I yet may bend myself to thee,
And join my feeble voice to raise
A simple hymn of grateful praise.

L. M.
The Sabbath.

- 1 We bless thee for this sacred day,
Thou, who hast every blessing given,
Which sends the dreams of earth away,
And yields a glimpse of opening heaven.
- 2 Lord, may thy truth upon the heart
Now fall, and dwell as heavenly dew,
And flowers of grace in freshness start
Where once the weeds of error grew.
- 3 We would our prayers with fervor bring,
And lay them at thy sacred throne,
And render praise, O heavenly King,
To thee, who praise canst claim alone.

10

7s. 6l.
The Sabbath.

- 1 SAFELY through another week
God has brought us on our way;
Let us now a blessing seek,
Waiting in his courts to-day —
Day of all the week the best,
Emblem of eternal rest!
- 2 Lord, we pray for pardoning grace,
In our dear Redeemer's name:

Sin remove, and in its place
Give us virtue's purest flame :
Thus, from all our sins set free,
May we rest at last with thee.

11

L. M.
Sunday School.

- 1 ASSEMBLED in our school once more,
God's gracious blessing we implore :
We meet to learn, and sing, and pray :
May he be with us through this day.
- 2 If we attend with humble mind,
And seek instruction, we shall find :
Then, while we hear the sacred page,
O, may its truth our hearts engage.
- 3 These Sabbath days will soon be o'er,
And we shall come to school no more ;
We would not then endure the pain
Of having spent our time in vain.
- 4 And when on earth we meet no more,
May we to God, our Father, soar,
And praise him in more lofty strains,
Where one eternal Sabbath reigns.

12

L. M.
Morning.

- 1 O God, I thank thee that the night
In peace and rest hath passed away ;
And that I see, in this fair light,
My Father's smile, that makes it day.
- 2 Be thou my guide, and let me live
As under thine all-seeing eye :

Supply my wants, my sins forgive,
And make me happy when I die.

13

L. M.
Morning.

- 1 THE soaring lark proclaims the dawn,
And hails the glorious orb of day :
The lowing herds spread o'er the lawn,
Or range the flowery pastures gay.
- 2 The singing birds, of various notes,
From every shady grove around, [throats
Pour forth their strains ;—their warbling
Make all the hills and dales resound.
- 3 Their cheerful songs, which sweetly rise,
Show forth their bounteous Maker's praise,
Who smiles on all ;—and each one tries
Its finest, noblest notes to raise.
- 4 The soothing, gentle morning breeze,
With richest, purest fragrance blows ;
And, rustling through among the trees,
Refreshes all things as it goes.
- 5 All hail !—these early morning hours !—
They often call the wise abroad,
To view and praise the mighty powers,
The greatly glorious works of God !

14

C. M.
Morning.

- 1 THROUGH all the dangers of the night
Preserved, O Lord, by thee,
Again we hail the cheerful light,
Again we bow the knee

reserve us, Lord, throughout the day;
And guide us by thine arm ;
For they are safe, and only they,
Whom thou dost save from harm.

C. M.

Morning Praise.

If God was with me all this night,
And gave me sweet repose ;
If God did watch, e'en whilst I slept
Or I had never rose.

Lord, for the mercies of the night
My humble thanks I pay ;
And unto thee I dedicate
The first fruits of the day.

Let this day praise thee, O my God,
And so let all my days ;
And O, let mine eternal day
Be thine eternal praise.

T. M.

To feel devotion's soothing power,
To hear the teachings of thy word.

- 3 Oft, when the world, with iron hands,
Has bound me in its six days' chain,
This bursts me from the earthly bands,
And sets my spirit free again.
- 4 Yes, dear to me the Sabbath morn :
The cheerful bells, with wakening voice,
Have often found my heart forlorn,
But always bid that heart rejoice.

17

L. M.
The Temple.

- 1 CALLED by the Sabbath bells away,
Unto thy holy temple, Lord,
I'll go, with willing mind to pray,
To praise thy name, and hear thy word
- 2 O sacred day of peace and joy,
Thy hours are ever dear to me ;
Ne'er may a sinful thought destroy
The holy calm I find in thee.
- 3 Dear are thy peaceful hours to me,
For God has given them in his love,
To tell how calm, how blest shall be
The endless day of heaven above.

C. M.
The Temple.

- 1 LET us adore the grace that seeks
To draw our hearts above ;
For, lo ! the great Jehovah speaks,
And every word is love.

S. M.
Morning.

WE lift our hearts to thee,
Thou Day-star from on high;
The sun itself is but thy shade,
Yet cheers both earth and sky.

O, let thy rising beams
Dispel the shades of night;
And let the glories of thy love
Come like the morning light.

May we this life improve,
To mourn for errors past;
And live this short revolving day
As if it were our last.

S. M.
Morning.

BEHOLD, the morning sun
Begins his glorious way!
His beams through all the nations run,
And life and light convey.
But where the gospel comes

4 My gracious God, how plain
Are thy directions given !
O, may I never read in vain,
But find the path to heaven !

21

C. M.
Sabbath Morning.

- 1 SLEEP, sleep to-day, tormenting cares,
Of earth and folly born !
Ye shall not dim the light that streams
From this celestial morn.
- 2 To-morrow will be time enough
To feel your harsh control !
Ye shall not violate this day,
The Sabbath of the soul.
- 3 Sleep, sleep forever, guilty thoughts !
Let fires of vengeance die ;
And, purged from sin, may I behold
A God of purity !

22

C. M.
Sabbath Morning.

- 1 AGAIN the Lord of life and light
Awakes the kindling ray ;
Unseals the eyelids of the morn,
And pours increasing day.
- 2 O, what a night was that which wrapt
The heathen world in gloom !
O, what a sun, which broke, this day,
Triumphant from the tomb !
- 3 This day be grateful homage paid,
And loud hosannas sung ;
Let gladness dwell in every heart,
And praise on every tongue.

With cheerful heart I meet my God ;
Thy presence makes me truly blest.
Thou art life, and sweet the light
That pours from the bright orb of day,
Appealing to our raptured sight
The world in all its rich display.
Thou art life, and sweet its ties,
The touching charities of man ;
And, fellow, child, and parent rise,
To dearer life's progressive plan.
Without thee light and life would soon be vile,
And all their dearest pleasures fall,
The sun would shine, nor life would smile
Without thy presence glad'ning all.

L. M.
The Temple.

Let us unite to bless the Lord,
As we are taught to read his word —
To walk in wisdom's pleasant ways,
To seek his grace, and sing his praise.

25

L. M.
Worship.

- 1 O COME, loud anthems let us sing,
Loud thanks to our almighty King ;
For we our voices high should raise,
When our salvation's rock we praise.
- 2 Into his presence let us haste,
To thank him for his favors past ;
To him address, in joyful songs,
The praise that to his name belongs.
- 3 The depths of earth are in his hand,
Her secret wealth at his command ;
The strength of hills, that threat the skies,
Subjected to his empire lies.
- 4 The rolling ocean's vast abyss
By the same sovereign right is his ;
'Tis moved by his almighty hand,
That formed and fixed the solid land.
- 5 O, let us to his courts repair,
And bow with adoration there ;
Down on our knees devoutly, all,
Before the LORD our Maker fall !

26

L. M.
Sabbath Morning.

- 1 ANOTHER six days' work is done,
Another Sabbath is begun ;
Return, my soul, enjoy thy rest,
Improve the day that God hath blest.
- 2 O that our thoughts and thanks may rise,
As grateful incense, to the skies ;
And draw from heaven that sweet repose
Which none but he that feels it knows !

the end of cares, the end of pains.
holy duties let the day,
holy pleasures, pass away.
How sweet a Sabbath thus to spend,
hope of one that ne'er shall end!

C. M.
Worship.

HOLY and reverend is the name
Of our eternal King;
"Thrice holy Lord!" the angels cry;
"Thrice holy!" let us sing.
The deepest reverence of the mind
Pay, O my soul, to God;
Fit with thy hands a holy heart
To his sublime abode.
With sacred awe pronounce his name,
Whom words nor thoughts can reach:
A contrite heart will please him more
Than the best forms of speech.
O thou holy God! preserve my soul

- 2 Thy precious time misspent redeem ;
Each present day thy last esteem ;
Improve thy talent with due care ;
For the great day thyself prepare.
- 3 In conversation be sincere ;
Keep conscience as the noon-tide clear ;
Think how th' all-seeing God thy ways
And all thy secret thoughts surveys.
- 4 Lord, I my vows to thee renew ;
Scatter my sins like morning dew ;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with thyself my spirit fill.
- 5 Direct, control, suggest, this day,
All I design, or do, or say ;
That all my powers, with all their might,
In thy sole glory may unite.

29

C. M.
Morning Devotion.

- 1 EARLY, my God, without delay,
I haste to seek thy face :
My thirsty spirit faints away,
Without thy cheering grace.
- 2 So pilgrims, on the scorching sand,
Beneath a burning sky,
Long for a cooling stream at hand,
And they must drink or die.
- 3 Not life itself, with all its joys,
Can my best passions move ;
Nor raise so high my cheerful voice,
As thy forgiving love.

Thus will I sing,
And tune my lips to sing.

) C. M.
Morning Devotion.

LORD, in the morning thou shalt hear
My voice ascending high ;
To thee will I direct my prayer,
To thee lift up mine eye.

And to thy house will I resort,
To taste thy mercies there,
I will frequent thine holy court,
And worship in thy fear.

O, may thy Spirit guide my feet
In ways of righteousness !
Make every path of duty straight
And plain before my face !

The men who love and fear thy name
Shall see their hopes fulfilled ;
The mighty God will compass them
With favor as a shield.

- 2 With holy joy I hail the day
 That warms my thirsting soul away;
 What transports fill my breast!
 For, lo! my great Redeemer's power
 Unfolds the everlasting door,
 And leads me to his rest!

32

S. M.
The Day of Rest.

- 1 SWEET is the task, O Lord,
 Thy glorious acts to sing,
 To praise thy name, and hear thy word,
 And grateful offerings bring;—
 2 Sweet at the dawning hour,
 Thy boundless love to tell;
 And when the night-wind shuts the flower
 Still on the theme to dwell;—
 3 Sweet, on this day of rest,
 To join in heart and voice
 With those who love and serve thee best,
 And in thy name rejoice.
 4 To songs of praise and joy
 Be every Sabbath given,
 That such may be our blest employ
 Eternally in heaven.

8 & 7s M
Worship.

- 1 FAR from mortal cares retreating,
 Sordid hopes and fond desires,
 Here, our willing footsteps meeting,
 Every heart to heaven aspires.

Light celestial cheer,
Mercy from above proclaiming
Peace and pardon from the skies.

Every stain of guilt abhorring,
Firm and bold in virtue's cause,
Still thy providence adoring,
Faithful subjects to thy laws, —

4 Lord ! with favor still attend us,
Bless us with thy wondrous love ;
Thou, our sun and shield, defend us ;
All our hope is from above,

S. M.
The Place of Praise.

1 COME to the house of prayer,
O thou afflicted, come ;
The God of peace shall meet thee there
He makes that house his home.

2 Come to the house of praise,
Happy now ;

Soon shall your trembling tongues be dumb,
Your lips forget to move.

5 Thou, whose benignant eye
In mercy looks on all ;
Who see'st the tear of misery,
And hear'st the mourner's call ;

6 Up to thy dwelling-place
Bear our frail spirits on,
Till they outstrip time's tardy pace,
And heaven on earth be won.

35

L. M.
God hears us.

- 1 God is so good that he will hear
Whenever children humbly pray ;
He always lends a gracious ear
To what the youngest child can say.
- 2 His own most holy book declares,
That, as a tender father will,
He listens to our lowly prayers,
And what we ask will grant us still.
- 3 He loves to hear a grateful tongue
Thank him for all his mercies given ;
And when on earth his praise is sung,
The cheerful notes are heard in heaven.

7s M.
Worship.

- 1 LORD, before thy presence come,
Bow we down with holy fear ;
Call our erring footsteps home,
Let us feel that thou art near.

ndering thoug
ome not where devout
t the soul expand her stores,
Glowing with the joy she feels.
t the portals of thine house,
We resign our earth-born cares :
nobler thoughts our souls engross,
Songs of praise and fervent prayers.

S. M.
The Sunday School.

1 WITHIN these walls be peace ;
Love through our borders found ;
In all our little palaces
Prosperity abound.

2 God scorns not humble things ;
Here, though the proud despise,
The children of the King of kings
Are training for the skies.

3 May none who thus are taught,
From glory be cast down,
From such faith and patience, broug

And ere the night has closed our eyes,
We'll thank thee for the day.

- 3 Our Saviour, ever good and kind,
To us his word has given,
That children, such as we, may find
A certain path to heaven.
- 4 Stretch out, O Lord, thy gracious hand,
To guide our erring youth ;
And lead us to that blissful land
Where dwells eternal truth.

39

L. M.
The House of God.

- 1 Lo, God is here ! let us adore,
And humbly bow before his face :
Let all within us feel his power,
Let all within us seek his grace.
- 2 Lo, God is here ! him day and night
United choirs of angels sing :
To him, enthroned above all height,
Heav'n's host their noblest homage bring
- 3 Being of beings ! may our praise
Thy courts with grateful fragrance fill ;
Still may we stand before thy face,
Still hear and do thy sovereign will.

40

L. M.
The Temple.

- 1 HERE let thy holy days be kept ;
And be this place to worship given,
Like that bright spot where Jacob slept,
The house of God, the gate of heaven.

in contrite hearts and rise on the still and holy air.
Be thy praise devoutly sung ;
Here let thy truth beam forth to save,
When of old thy spirit hung
On wings of light o'er Jordan's wave.
And when the lips, that with thy name
Are vocal now, to dust shall turn,
In others may devotion's flame
Be kindled here, and purely burn.

C. M.
The Temple.

Hold us, Lord, with humble fear
Approach thy temple gate ;
Though most unworthy to draw near,
Or in thy courts to wait.
But, trusting in thy boundless grace,
To all so freely given,
We worship in thy holy place,
And lift our souls to heaven."

42

L. M.
Worship.

- 1 BEFORE Jehovah's awful throne,
Ye nations, bow with sacred joy ;
Know that the Lord is God alone ;
He can create and he destroy.
- 2 His sovereign power, without our aid,
Made us of clay, and formed us men ;
And when like wandering sheep we strayed,
He brought us to his fold again.
- 3 We are his people, we his care,
Our souls and all our mortal frame :
What lasting honors shall we rear,
Almighty Maker, to thy name ?
- 4 We'll crowd thy gates with thankful songs ;
High as the heavens our voices raise ;
And earth, with her ten thousand tongues,
Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise.
- 5 Wide as the world is thy command,
Vast as eternity thy love ;
Firm as a rock thy truth will stand,
When rolling years shall cease to move.

43

C. M.
Worship.

- 1 GREAT Shepherd of thy people, here
Thy presence now display :
We kneel within thy house of prayer,
O, give us hearts to pray !

To kneel before make us, creatures of thy
The children of thy grace!

C. M.
Worship.

ALMIGHTY God, while earth and heaven
Thy power and skill proclaim,
Wilt thou permit a child to sing
The honor of thy name?

2 The early dawn of opening life
Has proved thy guardian care;
And may I, through my future years,
Thy grace and goodness share.

3 Now may I give myself to thee,
And in thy name confide;
Most gracious God, O deign to be
My Father, Friend, and Guide.

L. M.
Worship.

45 to the house of God we go,

and sing his love,

But learn, by Sabbaths spent below,
To spend eternity in heaven.

S. M.
Rejoice in God.

- 1 COME, we that love the Lord,
And let our joys be known :
Join in a song with sweet accord,
And thus surround the throne.
- 2 The sorrows of the mind
Be banished from the place :
Religion never was designed
To make our pleasures less.
- 3 Then let our songs abound,
And every tear be dry :
We're marching thro' Immanuel's ground
To fairer worlds on high.

47

C. M.
The Temple.

- 1 O'ER mountain tops the mount of God
In latter days shall rise
Above the summits of the hills,
And draw the wondering eyes.
- 2 To this the joyful nations round,
All tribes and tongues, shall flow ;
"Up to the mount of God," they say,
"And to his house we'll go."
- 3 The beams that shine from Zion's hill
Shall lighten every land ;
The King who reigns in Salem's towers
Shall the whole world command.

ORIOUS things --

Zion, city of our God!

Whose word cannot be broken

Formed thee for his own abode.

Be! the streams of living waters,

Springing from eternal love,

Well supply thy sons and daughters,

And all fear of want remove.

Who can faint while such a river

Ever flows their thirst to assuage?

Grace, which, like the Lord, the Giver,

Never fails from age to age.

L. M.

The Church.

ZION, awake! thy strength renew!

Put on thy robes of beauteous hue!

Church of our God, arise and shine,

Bright with the beams of truth divine!

Soon shall thy radiance stream afar,

While as the heathen nations are;

They shall view:

- 2 Here, when thy messengers proclaim
The blessed gospel of thy Son,
Still, by the power of his great name,
Be mighty signs and wonders done.
- 3 Hosanna! to their heavenly King,
When children's voices raise that song,
Hosanna! let their angels sing,
And heaven with earth the strain prolong.

51

C. M.
Close of Service.

- 1 O God, accept the sacred hour
Which we to thee have given;
And let this hallowed scene have power
To raise our souls to heaven.
- 2 Still let us ho'd, till life departs,
The precepts of thy Son;
Nor let our thoughtless, thankless hearts
Forget what he has done.
- 3 His true disciples may we live,
From all corruption free,
And humbly learn like him to give
Our powers, our wills, to thee.

52

L. M.
Close of Service.

- 1 Thy presence, everlasting God!
Wide o'er all nature spreads abroad:
Thy watchful eyes, which cannot sleep,
In every place thy children keep.
- 2 To thee we all our ways commit,
And seek our comforts near thy feet;
Still on our souls vouchsafe to shine,
And guard and guide us still as thine.

- 3 Give us, in thy beloved house,
 Again to pay our grateful vows;
 Or, if that joy no more be known,
 Give us to meet around thy throne.

8 & 7s M.

- 1 LORD of nature, Source of light,
 In pity view thy world below;
 Guide our erring footsteps right,
 Through these scenes of guilt and woe.
- 2 Grant thy spirit! By thy kindness
 Let our errors be forgiven;
 Heal our sins; dispel our blindness;
 Then conduct us safe to heaven.

54

L. M.

Sabbath Evening.

- 1 AGAIN we've seen the Sabbath day,
 And heard of Jesus and of heaven;
 We thank thee, Father, and we pray
 That this day's sins may be forgiven.
- 2 May all we've heard and understood
 Be well remembered through the week,
 And help to make us wise and good,
 More humble, diligent, and meek.

7s.

At Parting.

- 1 As the sun's enlivening eye
 Shines on every place the same;
 So the Lord is always nigh
 To the souls that love his name
- 2 For a season called to part,
 Let us then ourselves commend

PUBLIC WORSHIP

To the gracious eye and
Of our ever-present

3 Father, hear our humble
Tender Shepherd of

Sweeten every cross
Give us, if we live, ere long
Here to meet in peace

Dismission H

1 LORD, dismiss us with Hope and comfort
Let us each, thy peace
Triumph in redemption

2 Thanks we give and
For thy gospel's joy
May the fruits of thy
In our hearts and lives

Rise glorious at the dawn

O, may my soul on thee repose,
And may sweet sleep mine eyelids close
Sleep that may me more vigorous make
To serve my God when I awake.

58

L. M.
Evening.

- 1 THY favor, gracious Lord, impart,
With sacred joy to cheer my heart:
Howe'er the corn and wine increase,
Earth ne'er can yield such heavenly peace
2 With thy protection kindly blest,
I'll lay me down in peace to rest;
Safe in thy care — from danger free,
To wake on earth — or wake with thee

59

7s M.
Evening Devotion.

- 1 SOFTLY now the light of day
Fades upon my sight away;
Free from care, from labor free,

Then, from sin and sorrow free,
Take me, Lord, to dwell with thee!

60

L. M.
Evening Devotion.

- 1 WHEN home I seek, and sweet repose,
And humbly kneel, at evening's close,
From worldly care and toil set free,
What joy, O Lord, to turn to thee!
- 2 And as the faithful golden flower
Turns to the sun, each passing hour,
And never, till the close of day,
Loses his animating ray, —
- 3 So turns my soul to love divine :
Here may the beams of mercy shine ;
Here may that holy light be shed,
Which gilds a Christian's dying bed.

61

L. M.
Evening.

- 1 ANOTHER fleeting day is gone ;
Slow o'er the west the shadows rise ;
Swiftly the passing hours have flown,
And night's dark curtains veil the skies.
- 2 Another fleeting day is gone ;
But soon a fairer day shall rise, —
A day whose never-setting sun
Shall pour its light o'er cloudless skies.
- 3 Another fleeting day is gone ;
In solemn silence rest, my soul !
Bow down thy heart before His throne,
Who bids the morn and evening roll.

Sabbath Evening.

- 1 SACRED day, forever blest !
Day of all our days the best ;
Welcome hours of praise and prayer,
Free from toil, fatigue, and care !
- 2 Happy, happy, happy, Lord,
Those who hear and read thy word !
Happy those who dwell with thee !
Who thy grace and glory see.
- 3 We once more have heard thy voice :
Lord, in thee our souls rejoice ;
Borne by faith to worlds on high,
Called to reign above the sky.
- 4 Though this day of rest we close,
Still in thee our hearts repose ;
Guide and guard us all our days :
O, may all our lives be praise !

65

L. M.
Evening Hymn.

- 1 ANOTHER day its course hath run,
And still, O God, thy child is blest ;
For thou hast been by day my sun,
And thou wilt be by night my rest.

7s M.
Evening Hymn.

- 1 THOU, my ever-bounteous God,
Crown'st my days with various good,
Thy kind eye, which cannot sleep,
My defenceless hours shall keep.
- 2 What if death my sleep invade?
Should I be of death afraid?
While encircled by thine arm,
Death may strike, but cannot harm
- 3 With thy heavenly presence blest,
Death is life, and labor rest:
Welcome sleep or death to me,
Still secure, — for still with thee!

67

L. M.
Morning and Evening.

- 1 MY God, how endless is thy love!
Thy gifts are every evening new
And morning mercies, from above,

Perpetual blessings from thine hand
Demand perpetual songs of praise.

68

L. M.
Sabbath Evening.

- 1 THERE is a time when moments flow
More happily than all beside :
It is, of all the times below,
A Sabbath at the eventide.
- 2 O, then the setting sun shines fair ;
And all below, and all above,
The various forms of nature wear —
One universal garb of love.
- 3 And then the pence that Jesus brought,
The life of grace eternal beams ;
And we, by his example taught,
Will prize the life his love redeems.
- 4 Delightful scene ! — a world at rest —
A God all love — no grief, no fear —
A heavenly hope — a peaceful breast —
A smile unsullied by a tear.

69

C. M.
Evening Hymn.

- 1 LORD, thou wilt hear me when I pray ;
I am forever thine ;
I fear before thee all the day,
Nor would I dare to sin.
- 2 And while I rest my weary head,
From cares and business free,
’Tis sweet conversing, on my bed,
With my own heart and thee.

Great God, my soul
Upon thy grace alone.

- 4 Thus, with my thoughts composed to rest
I'll give mine eyes to sleep:
Thy hand in safety keeps my days,
And will my slumbers keep.

70

L. M.
Sabbath Evening.

- 1 How sweet, at Sabbath's stilly eve,
To give to contemplation wings,
To throw away all thoughts that grieve
And muse on high and heavenly!
- 2 To look above to yonder spheres;
Where, bright in rolling beauty,
The stars of many thousand years,
Hung by the Architect divine!
- 3 Silent those orbs — O, do they see
With forms, like ours, of life and love
A Saviour's face

Sing hallelujahs loud to Him
Who reigns in full effulgence blest?

11s & 8s.
Evening.

- 1 How pleasant it is, at the close of the day,
No follies to mourn or lament,
But to think of the past, and be able to say
That our time has been properly spent!
- 2 When we've finished our lessons with patience and care,
And been studious, obliging, and kind,
We lie on our pillows, and quietly there
Sleep with happy and peaceable minds.

P. M.
The Evening Prayer.

God, that madest earth and heaven,
Darkness and light!
Who the day for toil hast given,
For rest the night!
May thine angel guards defend us,
Slumber sweet thy mercy send us,
Holy dreams and hopes attend us,
This livelong night!

7s M.
Evening Prayer.

- 1 MIGHTY God! another day
Me hath sped along my way:
Nearer to my grave I've come,
Nearer to my endless home.

E 2

DWELL THOU EVER IN MY HEART

74

L. M.
Sabbath Evening.

- 1 ANOTHER day, O Lord, is gone,
Another of thy Sabbaths past ;
O, may each day of duty done
Be holier, happier than the last !
 - 2 And may the teachings of thy word,
This day received, through life remain ;
Their gentle influence still afford,
To soothe each woe, to calm each pain.
 - 3 Wilt thou be with us when apart ? —
Together, wilt thou be our stay ?
Engrave upon thy children's heart
The lessons of this holy day.

PRAISE TO GOD.

75

7s M.
Cheerful Praise.

- 3 All things living he doth feed;
His full hand supplies their need;
For his mercies, &c.
- 4 Let us therefore warble forth
His high majesty and worth;
For his mercies, &c.

S. M.

- 1 COME, sound his praise abroad,
And hymns of glory sing;
Jehovah is the mighty God,
The universal King.
- 2 He formed the deeps unknown,
And gave the seas their bound;
The watery worlds are all his own,
And all the solid ground.
- 3 Come, worship at his throne;
Come, bow before the Lord;
We are his work, and not our own;
He formed us by his word.

77

C. P. M.

Praise ye the Lord.

- 1 BEGIN, my soul, th' exalted lay;
Let each enraptured thought obey,
And praise th' Almighty's name:
Lo! heaven and earth, and seas and skies,
In one melodious concert rise,
To swell th' inspiring theme.
- 2 Thou heaven of heavens, his vast abode,
Ye clouds, proclaim your Maker, God;
Ye thunders, speak his power:

on the triumph walks the h' astonished worlds adore.
deeps, with roaring billows rise,
join the thunders of the skies;
Praise him, who bids you roll;—
is praise in softer notes declare,
each whispering breeze of yielding air,
And breathe it to the soul.
Wake, all ye soaring throngs, and sing;
Ye feathered warblers of the spring,
Harmonious anthems raise
To him who shaped your finer mould,
Who tipped your glittering wings with gold,
And tuned your voice to praise.
5 Let man, by nobler passions swayed,
Let man, in God's own image made,
His breath in praise employ;
Spread wide his Maker's name around,
Till heaven shall echo back the sound,
In songs of holy joy.

PRAISE TO GOD.

7s M.

- 1 PRAISE, O praise the name divine ;
Praise him at the hallowed shrine ;
Let the firmament on high
To its Maker's praise reply.
- 2 All who vital breath enjoy,
In his praise that breath employ,
And in one great chorus join ;
Praise, O praise the name divine.

80

8 & 7s.

- 1 PRAISE to thee, thou great Creator ;
Praise to thee from every tongue ;
Join, my soul, with every creature,
Join the universal song.
- 2 For ten thousand blessings given,
For the hope of future joy,
Sound his praise through earth and heaven,
Sound Jehovah's praise on high.

81

8 & 7s.

- 1 PRAISE the Lord ! ye heavens, adore him ;
Praise him, angels, in the height ;
Sun and moon, rejoice before him ;
Praise him, all ye stars of light !

Praise the Lord, for he hath spoken ;
Worlds his mighty voice obeyed ;
Laws, which never can be broken,
For their guidance he hath made.

Thy Works praise Thee.

- 1 ALL nature shows, in various ways,
Her great Creator's praise ;
The young birds sing, while on the wing,
In soft and pleasant lays.
- 2 The trees look gay, and seem to say,
There is a God above ;
The sun's bright beams, the liquid streams,
Say we are ruled by love.
- 3 The bleating flocks, with happy looks,
Say God deigns us to feed ;
Without his power, there's not an hour
But we should comforts need.
- 4 And if the herds, and trees, and birds,
All join to praise God's name,
It must not be that such as we
Neglect to do the same.

84

C. M.

- 1 I sing the mighty power of God,
That made the mountains rise, —
That spread the flowing seas abroad,
And built the lofty skies.
- 2 I sing the wisdom that ordained
The sun to rule the day ;
The moon shines full at his command,
And all the stars obey.
- 3 I sing the goodness of the Lord,
That filled the earth with food.

here's not a plant or flower known,
But makes thy glories known;
And clouds arise, and tempests blow,
By order from thy throne.

C. M.

INTERNAL Father, God of love,
To thee our hearts we raise;
Thy all-sustaining power we prove,
And gladly sing thy praise.
Thine — wholly thine — O let us be!
Our sacrifice receive:
Made, and preserved, and saved by thee,
To thee ourselves we give.

C. M.

HAIL, great Creator — wise and good!
To thee our songs we raise;
Nature, through all her various scenes,
Invites us to thy praise.

PRAISE TO GOD.

- 4 The lofty hill, the humble lawn
With countless beauties shine
The silent grove, the awful shade
Proclaim thy power divine.
- 5 Great nature's God! still may thy
Our serious hours engage!
Still may our grateful hearts confess
Thy works' instructive page!
- 6 And while, in all thy wondrous
Thy varied love we see,
O, may our hearts, great God, be
Through all thy works to thee

87

C. M.

- 1 O God, we praise thee, and confess
That thou the only Lord
And everlasting Father art,
By all the earth adored.
- 2 To thee all angels cry aloud;

How vast is thy power, thy glory how great!
Lo! myriads of spirits thy mandates await!

The works of creation thy bidding perform;
Thou ridest the whirlwind, directest the

With hearts full of love, to thee will we

To life's latest moment our voices we'll

C. M.

I also will praise Thee.

1 FATHER, I love to read of thee,
And learn of heaven above;
To hear what thou hast done for me,
By thy unceasing love;—

Has thought and care for me.

3 That thou art ever kind and good,
My constant blessings prove ;
My home, my friends, my daily food
Speak thy unfailing love.

Should sing its Maker's praise ;

My little offering raise !

Glory to God in the Highest.

1 Songs of praise the angels sang,
Heaven with hallelujahs rang,
When Jehovah's work begun,
When he spake, and it was done.

2 Songs of praise awoke the morn
When the Prince of Peace was born

- 4 And will man alone be dumb
Till that glorious kingdom come ?
No ; the church delights to raise
Psalms, and hymns, and songs of praise.
- 5 Saints below, with heart and voice,
Still in songs of praise rejoice ;
Learning here, by faith and love,
Songs of praise to sing above.

- 1 HOLY, holy, holy Lord !
Be thy glorious name adored ;
Lord, thy mercies never fail ;
Hail, celestial goodness, hail !
- 2 Though unworthy, Lord, thine ear,
Deign our humble songs to hear ;
Purer praise we hope to bring,
When around thy throne we sing.
- 3 There no tongue shall silent be ;
All shall join in harmony ;
That through heaven's capacious round
Praise to thee may ever sound.
- 4 Lord, thy mercies never fail ;
Hail, celestial goodness, hail !
Holy, holy, holy Lord !
Be thy glorious name adored.

S. M.

- 1 THY name, Almighty Lord,
Shall sound through distant lands ;

Up to the hills I lift mine eyes,
 The eternal hills beyond the skies;
 Thence all her help my soul derives;
 There my Almighty Refuge lives.
 He lives — the everlasting God,
 That built the world, that spread the flood;
 The heavens with all their hosts he made,
 And the dark regions of the dead.
 He guides our feet, he guards our way;
 His morning smiles bless all the day;
 He spreads the evening veil, and keeps
 The silent hours while Israel sleeps.

L. M.
Men should praise Thee.

1 THERE seems a voice in every gale,
 A tongue in every opening flower,
 Which tells, O Lord! the wondrous tale
 Of thy indulgence, love, and power.
 2 The birds that rise on soaring wing
 To hymn their Maker's praise,
 The flowers that open to the sun,
 And the sweet sounds of spring

But — matchless proof of love divine —
Thou gav'st immortal life to me.

L. M.

- 1 TRIUMPHANT, Lord, thy goodness reigns
Through all the wide celestial plains ;
And its full streams redundant flow
Through the abodes of men below.
- 2 Through nature's works its glories shine ;
The cares of providence are thine ;
And grace erects our mortal frame
The fairest temple to thy name.
- 3 O, give to every human heart
To taste and feel how good thou art ;
With grateful love, and reverend fear,
To know how blest thy children are.

God of the Seasons.

- 1 REJOICE ! the Lord is king !
Your Lord and King adore ;
Mortals, give thanks and sing,
And triumph evermore :
Lift up your hearts, lift up your voice ;
Rejoice, in sacred lays rejoice !
- 2 His wintry north winds blow,
Loud tempests rush amain ;
Yet his thick flakes of snow
Defend the infant grain :
Lift up your hearts, &c.

- 1 WHEN MY SOUL
 My rising soul surveys,
 Transported with the view, I'm lost
 In wonder, love, and praise.
- 2 Unnumbered comforts on my soul
 Thy tender care bestowed,
 Before my infant heart conceived
 From whom those comforts flow
- 3 Ten thousand thousand precious gifts
 My daily thanks employ ;
 Nor is the least a cheerful heart,
 That tastes those gifts with joy.
- 4 Through every period of my life,
 Thy goodness I'll pursue ;
 And after death, in distant worlds
 The glorious theme renew.

- 3 When death o'er nature shall prevail,
And all my powers of language fail,
Joy through my swimming eyes shall break,
And mean the thanks I cannot speak.
- 4 But, O, when that last conflict's o'er,
And I am chained to flesh no more,
With what glad accents shall I rise
To join the music of the skies !
- 5 Soon shall I learn th' exalted strains
Which echo o'er the heavenly plains,
And emulate, with joy unknown,
The glowing seraphs round thy throne.

P. M.

- 1 COME, thou Almighty King !
Help us thy name to sing ;
Help us to praise !
Father all glorious,
O'er all victorious,
Come and reign over us,
Ancient of days !
- 2 Come, thou all-gracious Lord
By heaven and earth adored,
Our prayer attend !
Come, and thy children bless ;
Give thy good word success ,
Make thine own holiness
On us descend !

- 1 My God ! thy boundless love I praise ;
How bright on high thy glories blaze !
How sweetly bloom below !
It streams from thine eternal throne ;
Through heaven its joys forever run,
And o'er the earth they flow.
- 2 'Tis love that paints the purp'e morn,
And bids the clouds, in air upborne,
Their genial drops distil ;
In every vernal beam it glows,
And breathes in every gale that blows,
And glides in every rill.
- 3 It robes in cheerful green the ground,
And pours its flowery beauties round,
Whose sweets perfume the gale ;
Its bounties richly spread the plain,
The blushing fruit, the golden grain,
And smiles on every vale.
- 4 But in thy gospel see it shine . . .

And ardent gratitude ;
And all my thoughts and passions tend
To thee, my Father and my Friend,
My soul's eternal good.

Goodness in Affliction.

- 1 GREAT Ruler of all nature's frame,
We own thy power divine ;
We hear thy breath in every storm,
For all the winds are thine.
- 2 Wide as they sweep their sounding way,
They work thy sovereign will ;
And, awed by thy majestic voice,
Confusion shall be still.
- 3 Thy mercy tempers every blast
To those who seek thy face,
And mingles with the tempest's roar
The whispers of thy grace.
- 4 Those gentle whispers let me hear,
Till all the tumult cease ;
And gales of Paradise shall lull
My weary soul to peace.

124

C. M.

- 1 God moves in a mysterious way,
His wonders to perform ;

- 3 Thy smiles, with a reviving light,
Cheer the long, darksome hours of night,
And gild the thickest gloom ;
Thy watchful love, around our bed,
Doth softly, like a curtain, spread,
And guard the peaceful room.
- 4 To thee our lives, our all we owe,
Our peace and sweetest joys below,
And brightest hopes above ;
Then let our lives and all that's ours,
Our souls, and all our active powers,
Be sacred to thy love.

103

L. M.

- 1 FATHER of lights ! we sing thy name,
Who kindlest up the lamp of day ;
Wide as he spreads his golden flame,
His beams thy power and love display.
- 2 Fountain of good ! from thee proceed

- 4 Not so may our forgetful hearts
O'erlook the tokens of thy care ;
But what thy liberal hand imparts,
Still own in praise, still ask in prayer.
- 5 So shall our suns more grateful shine,
And showers in sweeter drops shall fall,
When all our hearts and lives are thine,
And thou, O God ! enjoyed in all.

104

L. M.

- 1 GREAT Source of life ! our souls confess
The various riches of thy grace ;
Crowned with thy mercy, we rejoice,
And in thy praise exalt our voice.
- 2 By thee heaven's shining arch was spread ;
By thee were earth's foundations laid ;
And all the charms of man's abode
Proclaim the wise, the gracious God.
- 3 Thy tender hand restores our breath,
When trembling on the verge of death ;
Gently it wipes away our tears,
And lengthens life to future years.
- 4 These lives are sacred to the Lord ;
Kindled by him, by him restored ;
And, while our hours renew their race,
Still would we walk before his face.
- 5 So when, by him, our souls are led
Through unknown regions of the dead,
With joy triumphant, may we move
To seats of nobler life above !

GOD OUR SHEPHERD.

I feed in green pastures ; safe folded I rest :
He leadeth my soul where the still waters flow ;
Restores me when wandering, redeems when oppressed.
- 2 Through the valley and shadow of death though I stray,
Since thou art my guardian, no evil I fear ;
Thy rod shall defend me, thy staff be my stay ;
No harm can befall with my Comforter near.
- 3 In the midst of affliction my table is spread ;
With blessings unmeasured my cup runneth o'er ;
With perfume and oil thou anointest my head :
O, what shall I ask of thy providence more ?
- 4 Let goodness and mercy, my bountiful Go
Still follow my steps, till I meet thee above :

I seek, by the path which my forefathers
trod,
Through the land of their sojourn, thy kingdom of love.

S. M.

1 THE Lord my shepherd is;
I shall be well supplied;
Since he is mine, and I am his,
What can I want beside?

2 He leads me to the place
Where heavenly pasture grows,
Where living waters gently pass,
And full salvation flows.

3 If e'er I go astray,
He doth my soul reclaim,
And guides me in his own right way,
For his most holy name.

4 Whi'e he affords his aid,
I cannot yield to fear:
Though I should walk through death's da-

My shepherd's with me there.

Thy bounty through creation flows,
Full, free, and unconfined.

And bursts from every hill.
- : We view it o'er the spreading main,
And heavens which spread more wide ;
It drops in gentle showers of rain,
And rolls in every tide.
- : Long hath it been diffused abroad,
Through ages past and gone ;
Nor ever can exhausted be,

Employ my tongue in songs of praise,
And fill my heart with love !

110

L. M.

- 1 YES, God is good ! Each perfumed flower,
The smiling fields, the dark green wood,
The insect, fluttering for an hour, —
All things proclaim that God is good.
- 2 I hear it in the rushing wind ;
The hills, that have for ages stood,
And clouds, with golden colors lined,
Are all repeating, God is good.
- 3 Each little rill, that, many a year,
Has the same verdant path pursued,
And every bird, in accents clear,
Join in the song that God is good.
- 4 And countless are the blazing stars,
That sing his praise with light renewed ;
The rising sun each day declares,
In rays of glory, God is good.
- 5 The moon, that walks in brightness, says
That God is good ; and we, endued
With power to speak our Maker's praise,
Will still repeat that God is good.

Thy goodness we adore ;

He gives me life, and friends, and food
And knowledge for my mind.

And stars so sparkling bright ;
The sun to give us light by day,
And moon to shine by night.
- 3 He made each flower and tree,
Each insect, beast, and bird ;
Made every thing that we can see,
By his almighty word.

Be humble, kind, and mild ;
In all I do, and think, and say,
Be God's obedient child.

Thy thoughts of love reveal.

With all the blue, ethereal sky,
And spangled heavens, a shining frame,
Their great Original proclaim.
The unwearied sun, from day to day,
Doth his Creator's power display,
And publishes to every land
The work of an almighty hand.
- 2 Soon as the evening shades prevail,
The moon takes up the wondrous tale,
And, nightly, to the listening earth
Repeats the story of her birth ;
Whilst all the stars which round her be
And all the planets in their turn,
Confirm the tidings as they roll,

Forever singing, as they shine —
'The hand that made us is divine.'

Looks down upon the spheres;
Yet in his providence and grace
To every eye appears.
 - 2 He bows the heavens; the mountains stand
A highway for our God:
He walks amidst the desert-land;
'Tis Eden where he trod.
 - 3 The forests in his strength rejoice;
Hark! on the evening breeze,
As once of old, the Lord God's voice
Is heard among the trees.
 - 4 In every stream his bounty flows,
Diffusing joy and wealth;
In every breeze his spirit blows, —
The breath of life and health.
 - 5 His blessings fall in plenteous showers
Upon the lap of earth,
That teems with foliage, fruits, and flowers,
And rings with infant mirth.
- If God hath made this world so fair,
Where sin and death abound,
How beautiful beyond compare
Will Paradise be found!

In blessings on your head.
- 4 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust him for his grace:
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.

God with us.

- 1 BEYOND, beyond that boundless sea,
Above that dome of sky,
Farther than thought itself can flee,
Thy dwelling is on high ;
Yet dear the awful thought to me,
That thou, my God, art nigh.
- 2 We hear thy voice, when thunders roll
Through the wide fields of air ;
The waves obey thy dread control ;
Yet still thou art not there.
Where shall I find him, O my soul,
Who yet is every where ?
- 3 O, not in circling depth, or height,
But in the conscious breast,
Present to faith, though veiled from sight,
There does his spirit rest.
O, come, thou Presence Infinite,
And make thy creature blest.

God sees us.

- 1 FATHER of spirits ! Nature's God .
Our inmost thoughts are known to thee ,
Thou, Lord, canst hear each idle word,
And every private action see.

thy presence.

- 3 In vain may guilt attempt to fly,
Concealed beneath the pall of night
One glance from thy all-piercing eye
Can kindle darkness into light.
- 4 Search thou our hearts, and there destroy
Each evil thought, each secret sin ;
And fit us for those realms of joy,
Where nought impure shall enter in

C. M.

Thou, God, seest me.

- 1 GREAT God, thy penetrating eye
Pervades my inmost powers :
With awe profound, my wondering soul
Falls prostrate and adores.
- 2 To be encompassed round with God
The holy and the just,
Armed with omnipotence to save,
Or crumble me to dust, —
- 3 O how tremendous is the thought!

God with us.

- 1 FATHER divine ! before thy view
All worlds, all creatures lie ;
No distance can elude thy search,
No action 'scape thine eye.
- 2 From thee our vital breath we draw ;
Our childhood was thy care ;
And vigorous youth and feeble age
Thy kind protection share.
- 3 Whate'er we do, where'er we turn,
Thy ceaseless bounty flows ;
Oppressed with woe, when nature faints,
Thine arm is our repose.
- 4 To thee we look, thou Power Supreme ;
O, still our wants supply !
Safe in thy presence may we live,
And in thy favor die.

God with us.

- 1 To thee, my God, my days are known ;
My soul enjoys the thought ;
My actions all before thy face,
Nor are my faults forgot.
- 2 Each secret breath devotion lifts
Is vocal to thine ear ;
And all my walks of daily life
Before thine eye appear.
- 3 The vacant hour, the active scene,
Thy mercy shall approve ;

And dark affliction's midnight glo
A present God surveys.

And in thy view I die ;
And when each mortal bond is broken
Shall find my God is nigh.

Love God in Truth.

- 1 God is a Spirit, just and wise ;
He sees our inmost mind ;
In vain to Heaven we raise our cry
And leave our souls behind.
- 2 Nothing but truth before his throne
With honor can appear ;
The painted hypocrites are known
Through the disguise they wear

Teach me what thou wouldst have me do;
Suggest whate'er I think or say;

My kind protection ever prove;
Thy signet put upon my breast,
And let thy Spirit on me rest.

C. M.

Lead us, O Lord.

- 1 ETERNAL Source of life and light,
Supremely good and wise,
To thee we bring our grateful vows,
To thee lift up our eyes.
- 2 Our dark and erring minds illumine
With truth's 'celestial rays;
Inspire our hearts with sacred love,
And tune our lips to praise.
- 3 Safely conduct us, by thy grace,
Through life's perplexing road;
And place us, when that journey's o'er,
At thy right hand, O God!

Holy Desires.

- 1 God, who is just and kind,
Will those who err instruct,
And to the paths of righteousness
Their wandering steps conduct.

Who his just laws obey.

3 Give me the tender heart
That mixes fear with love,
And lead me through whatever
Thy wisdom shall approve.

4 O, ever keep my soul
From error, shame, and guilt
Nor suffer the fair hope to fail,
Which on thy truth is built.

Holy Desires.

1 UP to the fields where angels lie,
And living waters gently roll,
Fain would my thoughts leap out,
But sin hangs heavy on my soul

Kingdoms and men would vanish
Vanish as though I saw them not,

Seeking God.

- 1 MY God, permit my tongue
This joy, to call thee mine ;
And let my early cries prevail
To taste thy love divine.
- 2 My thirsty, fainting soul
Thy mercy does implore ;
Not travellers in a desert land
Can pant for water more.
- 3 For life without thy love
No relish can afford ;
No joy can be compared to this —
To serve and please the Lord.
- 4 The shadow of thy wings
My soul in safety keeps :
I follow where my Father leads,
And he supports my steps.

149

C. M.
Let me know my God.

- 1 SHINE forth, eternal Source of light,
And make thy glories known ;
Fill our enlarged, adoring sight
With lustre all thy own.
- 2 Vain are the charms, and faint the rays,
The brightest creatures boast ;
And all their grandeur and their praise
Is in thy presence lost.
- 3 To know the Author of our frame,
Is our sublimest skill :

- 4 For this I long, and
And following on pursue,
Till visions of eternal day
Fix and complete the view.

150

L. M.

- 1 My God, permit me not to be
A stranger to myself and thee :
Amidst a thousand thoughts I rove,
Forgetful of my highest love.
- 2 Why should my passions mix with earth,
And thus debase my heavenly birth ?
Why should I cleave to things below,
And let my God, my Savior, go ?
- 3 Call me away from flesh and sense :
One sovereign word can draw me thence :
I would obey the voice divine,
And all inferior joys resign.
- 4 Be earth, with all her scenes, withdrawn ;
Let noise and vanity be gone :

GOD.

- 2 Awhile these frail machines endure
The fabric of a day ;
Then know their vital powers no more
But moulder back to clay.
- 3 Yet, Lord, whate'er is felt or feared,
This thought is our repose —
That He, by whom this frame was reared,
Its various weakness knows.
- 4 Thou view'st us with a pitying eye,
While struggling with our load ;
In pains and dangers thou art nigh,
Our Father and our God.
- 5 Gently supported by thy love,
We tend to realms of peace ;
Where every pain shall far remove,
And every frailty cease.

152

C. M.

- 1 ETERNAL Spirit ! God-of truth !
Our contrite hearts inspire ;
Kindle the flame of heavenly love,
And feed the pure desire.
- 'Tis thine to soothe the sorrowing mind
With guilt and fear oppressed ;
'Tis thine to bid the dying live,
And give the weary rest.
- Subdue the power of every sin,
Whate'er that sin may be ;
That we, with humble, holy heart,
May worship only thee.

Dost thou proclaim thyself our God,

If God be with us there.

The darkest shades through which we pass

The Presence of God.

- 1 SHINE on our souls, eternal God,
With rays of beauty shine ;
O, let thy favor crown our days,
And all of them be thine.
- 2 Did we not raise our hands to thee,
Our hands might toil in vain ;
Small joy success itself could give,
If thou thy love restrain.
- 3 With thee let every week begin,
With thee each day be spent,
For thee each fleeting hour improved,
Since each by thee is lent.

Till all our labors cease,
And Heaven refresh our weary souls
With everlasting peace.

SOVEREIGN Ruler of the skies,
Ever gracious, ever wise !
All my times are in thy hand,
All events at thy command.
Thou didst form me by thy power ;
Thou wilt guide me hour by hour ;
All my times shall ever be Ordered by thy wise decree.

Times to taste a Savior's love ;—
All is fixed, the means and end,

Of life the only spring!
Creator of unnumbered worlds!
Supreme, eternal King! —

Impenitence and pride ;
Nor let me in forbidden paths,
With thoughtless sinners, glide.

I'll bless the good, and to the ill
Contentedly submit.

A wild of cares, and toils, and tears,
Where foes alarm and dangers threat,

To guide me in the lonely way ;
And o'er me hold thy shield of power
To guard me in the dangerous hour.

In which the thoughtless many run ;
Who for a shade the substance miss,
And grasp their ruin in their bliss.

In thine all-gracious providence
Our cheerful hopes confide ;

Thy love our footsteps guide.

God our Friend.

- 1 I WAITED patient for the Lord ;
He bowed to hear my cry ;
He saw me resting on his word,
And brought salvation nigh.
- 2 Firm as a rock he made me stand,
And taught my cheerful tongue
To praise the wonders of his hand,
And raise my soul in song.
- How many are thy thoughts of love !
Thy mercies, Lord, how great !
We have not words, nor hours, enough
Their numbers to repeat.
- When I'm afflicted, poor, and low,
And light and peace depart,
Thy God beholds my heavy woe,
And bears me on his heart.

1 LEAD us, Lord,
O'er the world's tempestuous sea;
Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us,
For we have no help but thee;
Still possessing every blessing
If our God our Father be.

Nothing shall our peace destroy.

The Child of God.*

1 QUIET, Lord, my froward heart;
Make me teachable and mild,
Upright, simple, free from art;
Make me as a weaned child;
From distrust and envy free,
Pleased with all that pleases thee.
What to-day provide,

GOD.

Let me thus with thee abide,
As my Father, Guard, and Guide.

- 4 Thus preserved from worldly wiles,
Safe from dangers, free from fears,
May I live upon thy smiles,
Till the promised hour appears,
When the sons of God shall prove
All their Father's boundless love.

Sickness.

- 1 God of my life, look gently down ;
Behold the pains I feel ;
But I am dumb before thy throne,
Nor dare dispute thy will.
- 2 Diseases are thy servants, Lord ;
They come at thy command ;
I'll not attempt a murmuring word
Against thy chastening hand.
- 3 I'm but a sojourner below,
As all my fathers were ;
May I be well prepared to go,
When I the summons hear.
- 4 But if my life be spared awhile,
Before my last remove,
Thy praise shall be my business still,
And I'll declare thy love.

Trust.

If, through unruffled seas,
Toward heaven we calmly sail,

And rest delay to come,
Blest be the sorrow, kind the storm,
Which drives us nearer home.

3 Soon shall our doubts and fears
All yield to thy control ;
Thy tender mercies shall illumine
The midnight of the soul.

To make thy will our own ;
And when the joys of sense depart,
To live by faith alone.

1 BLEST is the man who fears the Lord ;
His well-established mind,
In every varying scene of life,

Composure.

1 My Father! cheering name!
O, may I call thee mine?
Give me the humble hope to claim
A portion so divine.

2 This can my fears control,
And bid my sorrows fly:
What real harm can reach my soul
Beneath my Father's eye?

3 Whate'er thy will denies,
I calmly would resign;
For thou art just, and good, and wise:
O, bend my will to thine!

4 Thy ways are little known
To my weak, erring sight:
Yet shall my soul, believing, own
That all thy ways are right.

5 My Father! blissful name!
Above expression dear!
If thou accept the humble claim,
I bid adieu to fear.

The Savior spoke the healing word
The prayer was not denied.
- 2 The weary one in strength arose ;
The deaf was made to hear :
The Savior bade the winds repose
And wiped the widow's tear.
- 3 He wept in silence by the grave,
Then called the dead by name
His arm had strength enough to save
The dead arose and came.
- 4 Beyond these scenes of mortal woe
The Savior rose to dwell ;

Our Savior's Love.

- 1 COME, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quickening powers,
Kindle a flame of sacred love
In these cold hearts of ours.
- 2 In vain we tune our formal songs,
In vain we strive to rise;
Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.
- 3 Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quickening powers;
Come, shed abroad a Savior's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

See how He loved!

- 1 "SEE how he loved!" exclaimed the Jews,
As tender tears from Jesus fell:
My grateful heart the thought pursues,
And on the theme delights to dwell.
- 2 See how he loved, who travelled on,
Teaching the doctrine from the skies!
Who bade disease and pain be gone,
And called the sleeping dead to rise!
- 3 See how he loved, who, firm, yet mild,
Patient endured the scoffing tongue!
Though oft provoked, he ne'er reviled,
Nor did his greatest foe a wrong.

- 5 See how he loved, who died for n
Who labored thus, and thus end
To finish the all-gracious plan,

I lift my soul to thee ;
In all my sorrows, conflicts, woes,
Good Lord, remember me.

My sins lie heavily,
Thy pardon grant, new peace impart :
Good Lord, remember me.
- 3 When trials sore obstruct my way,
And ills I cannot flee,
O, let my strength be as my day :
Good Lord, remember me.
- 4 When in the solemn hour of death
I wait thy just decree,
Be this the prayer of my last breath —

Then, with the saints at thy right hand,

To give the mourner joy,
To preach glad tidings to the poor,

- 3 'Midst keen reproach and cruel scorn,
Patient and meek he stood ;
His foes, ungrateful, sought his life —
He labored for their good.
- 4 In the last hour of deep distress,
Before his Father's throne,
With soul resigned, he bowed, and said,
"Thy will, not mine, be done!"

His image may we bear!
O, may we tread his holy steps,
His joy and glory share!

Whose nobler light salvation brings,

- 3 The Lord is risen indeed ;
Attending angels, hear ;
Up to the courts of heaven, with speed,

And strike each cheerful chord ;

We shall rise also.

- 1 BLESSED be the everlasting God,
The Father of our Lord ;
Be his abounding mercy praised,
His majesty adored.
- 2 When from the dead he raised his Son,
And called him to the sky,
He gave our souls a lively hope
That they should never die.
- 3 What though the frame of man require
Our flesh to see the dust,
Yet as the Lord our Savior rose,
So all his followers must.

And Christ invites us near;
With both our friendship shall be sweet
And our communion dear.

He pardons every day;
Almighty to protect my soul,

I bless thy faithful care;
Mine advocate before the throne,
And my forerunner there.

Here wait, my warmest love,
Till the communion be complete
In nobler scenes above.

No more for earth I pine;
Secure of everlasting rest
Beneath the heavenly vine.

Christ's Kingdom.

- 1 JESUS shall reign where'er the sun
Does his successive journeys run;
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.
- 2 For him shall endless prayer be made,
And praises throng to crown his head;
His name, like sweet perfume, shall rise
With every morning sacrifice.
- 3 People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on his love with sweetest song;
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on his name.
- 4 Blessings abound where'er he reigns;
The prisoner leaps to loose his chains;
The weary find eternal rest;
And all the sons of want are blest.
- 5 Let every creature rise and bring
Peculiar honors to our King;
Angels descend with songs again,
And earth repeat the long amen.

THE BIBLE.

C. M.

- 1 How shall the young secure their hearts
And guard their lives from sin ?
Thy word the choicest rules imparts,
To keep the conscience clean.
- 2 When once it enters to the mind,
It spreads such light abroad,
The meanest souls instruction find,
And raise their thoughts to God.
- 3 'Tis like the sun, a heavenly light,
That guides us all the day ;
And through the dangers of the night,
A lamp to lead our way.
- 4 The starry heavens thy rule obey,
The earth maintains her place,
And these thy servants, night and day,
Thy skill and power express.
- 5 But still thy law and gospel, Lord,
Have lessons more divine ;
Not earth stands firmer than thy word,
Nor stars so nobly shine.
- 6 Thy word is everlasting truth ;
How pure is every page !
That holy book shall guide our youth,
And well support our age.

By inspiration given :
Bright as a lamp its doctrines shine,
To guide our souls to heaven.

2 It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts
In this dark vale of tears ;
Life, light, and joy, it still imparts,
And quells our rising fears.

3 This lamp, through all the tedious night
Of life, shall guide our way,
Till we behold the clearer light
Of an eternal day.

- 1 God, in the gospel of his Son,
Makes his eternal counsels known ;
'Tis here his richest mercy shines,
And truth is drawn in fairest lines.
- 2 Wisdom its dictates here imparts
To form our minds, to cheer our hearts ;
Its influence makes the sinner live ;
It bids the drooping saint revive.
- 3 Our raging passions it controls,
And comfort yields to contrite souls ;
It brings a better world in view,
And guides us all our journey through.
- 4 May this blest volume ever lie
Close to my heart, and near my eye, —
Till life's last hour my soul engage,
And be my chosen heritage.

Success of the Gospel.

- 1 MARK the soft-falling snow,
And the diffusive rain !
To heaven, from whence it fell,
It turns not back again ;

M 2

But waters earth
Through every pore,
And calls forth all
Her secret store.

2 Arrayed in beauteous green,
The hills and valleys shine,
And man and beast are fed
By Providence divine :
The harvest bows
Its golden ears,
The copious seed
Of future years.

3 "So," saith the God of grace,
"My gospel shall descend,
Almighty to effect
The purpose I intend.
Millions of souls
Shall feel its power,
And bear it down
To millions more."

1 TEACH me, O, teach me, Lord, thy way !
So to my life's remotest day,
By thy unerring precepts led,
My willing feet its paths shall tread.

2 Informed by thee with sacred awe
My heart shall meditate thy law ;
And, with celestial wisdom filled,
To thee its full obedience yield.

- 3 Give me to know thy words aright —
Thy words, my soul's supreme delight ;
That, purged from thirst of gold, my mind
In them its better wealth may find.
- 4 O, turn from vanity mine eye ;
To me thy quickening strength supply ;
And with thy promised mercy cheer
A heart devoted to thy fear.

225

L. M.
Thanks for the Gospel.

- 1 We sing thy mercy, God of love,
Which sent the Savior from above,
To free our race from sin and woe,
And spread thy peace and truth below.
- 2 We thank thee for the words he brought ;
We thank thee that he lived and taught
Our frail, imperfect souls to be,
In humble mode, resembling thee.
- 3 We thank thee for thy gracious care,
That kept those sacred pages fair
Through every age, whose lines record
The deeds and precepts of our Lord.

226

L. M.

- 1 So let our lips and lives express
The holy gospel we profess ;
So let our works and virtues shine,
To prove the doctrine all divine.
- 2 Thus shall we best proclaim abroad
The honors of our Savior God,

When the salvation reigns within,
And grace subdues the power of sin.

3 Our flesh and sense must be denied,
Passion and envy, lust and pride ;
While justice, temperance, truth, and lov.
Our inward piety approve.

4 Religion bears our spirits up,
While we expect that blessed hope,
The bright appearance of the Lord —
And Faith stands leaning on his word.

To joys divinely sweet.

My joy thy sayings to repeat,
Talk o'er the records of thy will,
And search the oracles divine,
Till every heart-felt word be mine.

O, may the reconciling word

Sweetly compose my weary breast,
While, trusting in my gracious Lord,
I sink in peaceful dreams away,
And visions of eternal day !

C. M.

1 O THAT thy statutes, every hour,
Might dwell upon my mind !
Thence I derive a quickening power,

Thy word is all my joy.

How sweet the lily grows !
How sweet the breath, beneath the hill,

The paths of peace have trod ;
Whose secret heart, with influence sweet,
Is upward drawn to God !
- 3 By cool Siloam's shady rill
The lily must decay ;
The rose that blooms beneath the hill
Must shortly fade away.
- 4 O Thou who giv'st us life and breath,
We seek thy grace alone,
In childhood, manhood, age, and death,
To keep us still thine own !

With all-engaging charms ;
Hark how he calls the tender lambs,
And folds them in his arms !

The Christian

- 1 AWAKE, my soul! stre
And press with vige
A heavenly scene dema

'Tis his own hand presents the prize
To thine aspiring eye —

- 4 That prize with peerless glories bright,
Which shall new lustre boast !
When victors' wreaths and monarchs' gems
Shall blend in common dust.

L. M.
The Christian Warfare.

- 1 AWAKE, my soul ! lift up thine eyes ;
See where thy foes against thee rise,
In long array, a numerous host !
Awake, my soul ! or thou art lost.
- 2 Here, giant Danger threatening stands,
Mustering his pale, terrific bands ;
There, Pleasure's silken banners spread,
And willing souls are captive led.
- 3 See where rebellious passions rage,
And fierce desires and lusts engage :
The meanest foe of all the train
Has thousands and ten thousands slain.
- 4 Thou tread'st upon enchanted ground ;
Perils and snares beset thee round ;
Beware of all ; guard every part ;
But most, the traitor in thy heart.
- 5 Come, then, my soul ! now learn to wield
The weight of thine immortal shield ;
Put on the armor from above,
Of heavenly truth and heavenly love.

- A never-dying soul to save,
And fit it for the sky ; —
- 2 To serve the present age,
My calling to fulfil :
- O, may it all my powers eng
To do my Master's will !
- 3 Arm me with jealous care
As in thy sight to live ;
And, O ! thy servant, Lord,
The strict account to give
- 4 Help me to watch and pray
And on thyself rely ;
Assured, if I my trust betray
I shall forsaken die.

Security.

He who walks in virtue's way,
Firm and fearless, walketh surely;
Diligent while yet 'tis day,
On he speeds, and speeds securely.

Flowers of peace beneath him grow,
Suns of pleasure brighten o'er him;
Memory's joys behind him go,
Hope's sweet angels fly before him.

Thus he moves from stage to stage,
Smiles of earth and heaven attending;
Softly sinking down in age,
And through death to God ascending.

156

L. M. 6th.
Yield to the Lord.

PEACE has unveiled her smiling face,
And wooes my soul to her embrace;
Enjoyed with ease, if thou refrain
From earthly love, else sought in vain;
She dwells with all who truth prefer,
But seeks not them who seek not her.

Yield to the Lord, with simple heart,
All that thou hast, and all thou art,
Renounce all strength but strength divine,
And peace shall be forever thine;
Behold the path the saints have trod,
The path which led them home to God.

- Thy Lord commands thee to
 For many foes thy camp surround
- 2 O, sleep not thou, as others do
 Awake, be vigilant, be brave
 The coward, and the sluggard
 Must wear the fetters of the slave
- 3 A nobler lot is cast for thee ;
 A crown awaits thee in the end
 With such a hope shall Israel
 And yield, through wearying
- 4 No : let a careless world repose
 And slumber on through life
 While Israel to the conflict goes
 And bears the glorious prize

C. M.
Sincerity.

- 1 Am I an Israelite indeed,
 Without a false disguise ?
 Have I renounced my sins

If I am wrong, O set me right !
If right, preserve me so !

S. M.
Fear God alone.

- 1 IMPOSTURE shrinks from light,
And dreads the curious eye ;
But sacred truths the tests invite ;
They bid us search and try.
- 2 O, may we still maintain
A meek, inquiring mind ;
Assured we shall not search in vain,
But hidden treasures find.
- 3 With understanding blest,
Created to be free,
Our faith on man we dare not rest,
Subject to none but thee.
- 4 Lord, give the light we need ;
With soundest knowledge fill ;
From noxious error guard our creed,
From prejudice our will.
- 5 The truth thou shalt impart
May we with firmness own ;
Abhorring each evasive art,
And fearing thee alone.

260

L. M.
Humility.

- 1 WHEREFORE should man, frail child of clay,
Who, from the cradle to the shroud,

- Lives but the insect of a day —
O, why should mortal man be proud?
- 2 His brightest visions just appear,
Then vanish, and no more are found;
The stateliest pile his pride can rear
A breath may level with the ground.
- 3 By doubt perplexed, in error lost,
With trembling step he seeks his way:
How vain of wisdom's gift the boast!
Of reason's lamp, how faint the ray!
- 4 Follies and sins, a countless sum,
Are crowded in life's little span:
How ill, alas! does pride become
That erring, guilty creature, man!
- 5 God of my life! Father divine!
Give me a meek and lowly mind:
In modest worth, O, let me shine,
And peace in humble virtue find.

261

C. M.

- 1 RETURN, O wanderer — now return!
And seek thy Father's face!
Those new desires, which in thee burn,
Were kindled by his grace.
- 2 Return, O wanderer — now return
He hears thy humble sigh:
He sees thy softened spirit mourn
When no one else is nigh.
- 3 Return, O wanderer — now return!
Thy Savior bids thee live:

Go to his feet, and grateful learn
How freely he'll forgive.

- 4 Return, O wanderer — now return !
And wipe the falling tear :
Thy Father calls — no longer mourn !
'Tis love invites thee near.

262

C. M.

- 1 WEAK and irresolute is man :
The purpose of to-day,
Woven with pains into his plan,
To-morrow rends away.
- 2 Some foe to his upright intent
Finds out his weaker part ;
Virtue engages his assent,
But pleasure wins his heart.
- 3 Bound on a voyage of awful length,
Through dangers little known,
A stranger to superior strength,
Man vainly trusts his own.
- 4 But oars alone can ne'er prevail
To reach the distant coast ;
The breath of Heaven must swell the sail,
Or all the toil is lost.

Patience.

- 1 O, HELP us, Lord ! each hour of need
Thy heavenly succor give ;
Help us in thought, and word, and deed,
Each hour on earth we live.
- 2 O, help us, when our spirits bleed,
With contrite anguish sore,
And when our hearts are cold and dead,
O, help us, Lord, the more.
- 3 O, help us, through the prayer of faith,
More firmly to believe ;
For still the more the servant hath,
The more shall he receive.

We know no help but thee ;
O, help us so to live and die,
As thine in heaven to be.

7s M.

- 1 God of mercy, God of love,
Hear our sad, repentant song ;
Sorrow dwells on every face,
Penitence on every tongue.
- 2 Deep regret for follies past,
Talents wasted, time misspent,
Hearts debased by worldly cares,
Thankless for the blessings lent, —
- 3 Foolish fears and fond desires,
Vain regrets for things as vain,
Lips too seldom taught to praise,
Oft to murmur and complain, —
- 4 These, and every secret fault,
Filled with grief and shame we own ;
Humbled at thy feet we lie,
Seeking pardon from thy throne.
- 5 God of mercy, God of grace,
Hear our sad, repentant songs ;
O, restore thy suppliant race,
Thou to whom all praise belongs.

268

L. M.

- 1 SWEET peace of conscience, heavenly guest !
Come, fix thy mansion in my breast ;
Dispel my doubts, my fears control,
And heal the anguish of my soul.
- 2 Come, smiling hope, and joy sincere,
Come, make your constant dwelling here ;

Still let your presence cheer my heart,
Nor sin compel you to depart.

- 3 O-God of hope and peace divine,
Make thou these sacred pleasures mine !
Forgive my sins, my fears remove,
And fill my heart with joy and love.

269

C. M.
Pardon.

- 1 My Father, let me hear thy voice
Pronounce the words of peace,
And all my warmest powers shall join
To celebrate thy grace.
- 2 With gentle smile call me thy child,
And speak my sins forgiven ;
The accents mild shall charm mine ear
All like the harps of heaven.
- 3 Cheerful, where'er thy hand shall lead,
The darkest path I'll tread ;
Cheerful I'll quit these mortal shores,
And mingle with the dead.
- 4 When dreadful guilt is done away,
No other fears we know ;
That hand which scatters pardon down
Shall crowns of life bestow.

8 & 6s.
Pardon.

- 1 Soft are the fruitful showers that bring
The welcome promise of the spring,
And soft the vernal gale ;

Sweet the wild warblings of the grove,
The voice of nature and of love,
That gladden every vale.

2 But softer in the mourner's ear
Sounds the mild voice of Mercy near,
That whispers sins forgiven;
And sweeter far the music swells,
When to the raptured soul she tells
Of peace and promised heaven.

3 Fair are the flowers that deck the ground;
And groves and gardens, blooming round,
Unnumbered charms unfold:
Bright is the sun's meridian ray,
And bright the beams of setting day,
That robe the clouds in gold.

4 But far more fair the pious breast,
In richer robes of goodness dressed,
Where heaven's own graces shine;
And brighter far the prospects rise,
That burst on Faith's delighted eyes,
From glories all divine.

1 THE traveller, lost in night,
Breathes many a longing sigh,
And marks the welcome dawn of light,
With rapture in his eye.

2 Thus sweet the dawn of day
Which weary sinners find,

When mercy, with reviving ray,
Beams o'er the fainting mind.

272

S. M.
Pardon.

- 1 O, BLESSED souls are they
Whose sins are covered o'er!
Divinely blest, to whom the Lord
Imputes their guilt no more!
- 2 They mourn their follies past,
And keep their hearts with care;
Their lips and lives, without deceit,
Shall prove their faith sincere.

273

C. M.
Prayer.

- 1 "OUR Father" hears when sinners pray;
'Tis joyful news to me;
I'll seek his face without delay,
And cry, "Remember me."
- 2 Through all the dangerous paths of youth,
Jesus, my leader be:
Teach me to tread the ways of truth;
"Blest Lord, remember me."
- 3 And when life's journey shall be o'er,
Heaven's mercy may I see;
Almighty! I would ask no more
Than this, — "Remember me."

274

H. M.
Prayer.

- 1 O THOU that hearest prayer!
Attend our humble cry;

And let thy servants share
Thy blessings from on high :
We plead the promise of thy word ;
Grant us thy Holy Spirit, Lord !

- 2 If earthly parents hear
Their children when they cry ;
If they, with love sincere,
Their children's wants supply ; —
Much more wilt thou thy love display,
And answer when thy children pray.

275

P. M.

- 1 THERE was joy in heaven !
There was joy in heaven !
When, this goodly world to frame,
The Lord of might and mercy came
Shouts of joy were heard on high,
And the stars sang from the sky —
"Glory to God in heaven !"

- 2 There was joy in heaven !
There was joy in heaven !
When the billows, heaving dark,
Sank around the stranded ark,
And the rainbow's watery span
Spake of mercy, hope to man,
And peace with God in heaven !

- 3 There was joy in heaven !
There was joy in heaven !
When of love the midnight beam
Dawned on the towers of Bethlehem

And along the echoing hill
Angels sang — "On earth, good will,
And glory in the heaven."

- 4 There is joy in heaven !
There is joy in heaven !
When the sheep that went astray
Turn again to virtue's way ;
When the soul, by grace subdued,
Sobs its prayer of gratitude,
Then is there joy in heaven !

276

C. M.
Prayer.

- 1 PRAYER is the soul's sincere desire,
Uttered or unexpressed ;
The motion of the hidden fire
That trembles in the breast.
- 2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear ;
The upward glancing of an eye,
When none but God is near.
- 3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try ;
Prayer, the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.
- 4 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air ;
His watchword at the gates of death ;
He enters heaven with prayer.
- 5 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice,
Returning from his ways ;

While angels in their songs rejoice,
And cry, "Behold, he prays!"

- 6 O thou by whom we come to God,
The life, the truth, the way!
The path of prayer thyself hast trod:
Lord, teach us how to pray!

277

C. M.
Prayer.

- 1 Soon as my youthful lips can speak
Their feeble prayer to thee,
O, let my heart thy favor seek:
Good Lord, remember me.
- 2 From every sin that wounds the heart
May I be taught to flee;
O, bid them all from me depart:
Good Lord, remember me.
- 3 O, let me on the bed of death
Thy great salvation see,
And pray, with my expiring breath,
Good Lord, remember me.

278

7 & 6s M.
Prayer.

- 1 Go, when the morning shineth;
Go, when the moon is bright;
Go, when the eve declineth;
Go, in the hush of night;
Go, with pure mind and feeling,
Fling earthly thought away,
And, in thy chamber kneeling,
Do thou in secret pray.

- 2 Remember all who love thee,
All who are loved by thee ;
Pray, too, for those who hate thee,
If any such there be ;
Then, for thyself, in meekness,
A blessing humbly claim,
And link with each petition
Thy great Redeemer's name.
- 3 Or, if 'tis e'er denied thee
In solitude to pray,
Should holy thoughts come o'er thee
When friends are round thy way, —
E'en then the silent breathing
Thy spirit sends above
Will reach his throne of glory,
Who is Mercy, Truth, and Love.
- 4 O, not a joy nor blessing
With this can we compare —
The power that he hath given us
To pour our souls in prayer !
Whene'er thou pin'st in sadness,
Before his footstool fall ;
Remember, in thy gladness,
His love who gave thee all.

79

C. M.

- 1 WE come in childhood's innocence,
We come, as children, free ;
We offer up, O God, our hearts
In trusting love to thee.

CHRISTIAN LIFE.

- 2 Well may we bend in solemn joy
At thy bright courts above ;
Well may the grateful child rejoice
In such a Father's love.
- 3 In joy we wake, in peace we sleep,
Safe from all midnight harms ;
Not folded in an angel's wings,
But in a Father's arms.

C. M.

Sincere Prayer.

280

- 1 WHEN daily I kneel down to pray
As I am taught to do,
God will not answer what I say,
Unless I feel it too.
- 2 Some idle play, or childish toy,
Can send my thoughts abroad ;
Though it should be my greatest joy
To love and seek the Lord.
- 3 O, let me never, never dare
To act the trifler's part,
Or think that God will hear a prayer
Which comes not from the heart.
- 4 But if I make his ways my choice,
As holy children do,
Then, while I seek him with my voice
My heart will love him too.

C. M.

Thy Will be done.

281

- 1 How sweet to be allowed to pray
To God, the Holy One ;

With filial love and trust to say,
"O God, thy will be done."

- 2 We in these sacred words can find
A cure for every ill :
They calm and soothe the troubled mind,
And bid all care be still.
- 3 O, let that will, which gave me breath
And an immortal soul,
In joy or grief, in life or death,
My every wish control.
- 4 O, teach my heart the blessed way
To imitate thy Son !
Teach me, O God, in truth to pray,
"Thy will, not mine, be done."

282

L. M.
Child at Prayer.

- 1 God from on high looks down to see
The humble child upon his knee ;
And makes him there more happy far,
Than earthly kings and princes are.
- 2 He loves to hear an infant pray
For grace to walk the heavenly way ;
And sends to him a quick relief
From every pang, from every grief.
- 3 Childhood and youth by God are given,
To gain and to prepare for heaven ;
And we our earliest hours should give
To him who died that we might live.
- 4 A work so pleasant and so sweet —
To bow before the mercy-seat —

None can the rapturous joys explain,
Which pardoned sinners there obtain.

- 5 Our hearts to thee, Lord, may we give,
And of thy pardoning grace receive;
All earthly joys may we resign
For those celestial and divine.

283

- 1 To prayer, to prayer! for the morning
breaks,
And earth in her Maker's smile awakes:
His light is on all below and above —
The light of gladness, and life, and love.
O, then, on the breath of this early air,
Send upward the incense of grateful prayer.
- 2 To prayer! for the glorious sun is gone,
And the gathering darkness of night comes on.
Like a curtain from God's kind hand it flows
To shade the couch where his children repose.
Then kneel, while the watching stars are bright,
And give your last thoughts to the Guardian of night.

284

C. M.

- 1 LORD, teach a little child to pray,
And, O, accept my prayer!
Thou canst hear the words I say,
For thou art every where.

2 A little sparrow cannot fall
Unnoticed, Lord, by thee ;
And though I am so young and small,
Thou dost take care of me.

3 Teach me to do whate'er is right,
And when I sin, forgive ;
And make it still my chief delight
To love thee while I live.

285

L. M.
Faith.

- 1 'Tis by the faith of joys to come
We walk through deserts dark as night ;
Till we arrive at heaven, our home,
Faith is our guide, and faith our light.
- 2 The want of sight she well supplies ;
She makes the pearly gates appear ;
Far into distant worlds she flies,
And brings eternal glories near.
- 3 Cheerful we tread the desert through,
While faith inspires a heavenly ray,
Though lions roar and tempests blow,
And rocks and dangers fill the way.
- 4 So Abra'am, by divine command,
Left his own house to walk with God :
His faith beheld the promised land,
And fired his zeal along the road.

C. P. M.
True Wisdom.

- 1 BE it my only wisdom here,
To serve the Lord with fital fear,
With loving gratitude :
Superior sense may I display,
By shunning every evil way,
And walking in the good.

- 2 O, may I still from sin depart !
A wise and understanding heart,
Father, to me be given !
And let me, through thy Spirit, know
To glorify my God below,
And find my way to heaven.

289

C. M.
Prudence.

- 1 FATHER of light, conduct my feet
Through life's dark, dangerous road ;
Let each advancing step still bring
Me nearer to my God.

- 2 Let heaven-eyed prudence be my guide;
And when I go astray,
Recall my feet from folly's path,
To wisdom's better way.
- 3 Teach me in every various scene
To keep my end in sight;
And while I tread life's mazy track,
Let wisdom guide me right.
- 4 That heavenly wisdom from above
Abundantly impart;
And let it guard, and guide, and warm,
And penetrate my heart, —
- 5 Till it shall lead me to thyself,
Fountain of bliss and love!
And all my darkness be dispersed
In endless light above.

- 1 My God, my strength, my hope,
On thee I cast my care,
With humble confidence look up
And know thou hear'st my prayer:
Give me on thee to wait,
Till I can all things do;
On thee, almighty to create,
Almighty to renew.
- 2 I want a sober mind,
A self-renouncing will,
That tramples down and casts behind
The baits of pleasing ill; —

A soul inured to pain,
To hardship, grief, and loss, —
Bold to take up, firm to sustain,
The consecrated cross.

3 I want a godly fear,
A quick, discerning eye,
That looks to thee when sin is near,
And sees the tempter fly, —
A spirit still prepared,
And armed with jealous care,
For ever standing on its guard,
And watching unto prayer.

291

C. M.
Watchfulness.

- 1 I WANT a principle within
Of jealous, godly fear ;
A sensibility of sin,
A pain to find it near.
- 2 I want the first approach to feel
Of pride or fond desire ;
To catch the wandering of my will,
And quench the kindling fire.
- 3 Quick as the apple of an eye,
O God, my conscience make !
Awake my soul, when sin is nigh,
And keep it still awake.

292

S. M.
True Wisdom.

- 1 To keep the lamp alive,
With oil we fill the bowl ;

'Tis water makes the willow thrive,
And grace that feeds the soul.

2 The Lord's unsparing hand
Supplies the living stream ;
It is not at our own command,
But still derived from him.

3 Man's wisdom is to seek
His strength in God alone ;
And e'en an angel would be weak,
Who trusted in his own.

4 Retreat beneath his wings,
And in his grace confide :
This more exalts the King of kings
Than all your works beside.

293

L. M.
Virtus.

- 1 SUPREME and universal Light !
Fountain of reason ! Judge of right !
Parent of good ! whose blessings flow
On all above, on all below ;—
- 2 Assist us, Lord ! to act, to be,
What nature and thy laws decree ;
Worthy that intellectual flame,
Which from thy breathing spirit came.
- 3 Our moral freedom to maintain,
Bid passion serve, and reason reign,
Self-poised and independent still
On this world's varying good or ill.
- 4 No slave to profit, shame, or fear,
O, may our steadfast bosoms bear

The stamp of heaven, an upright heart,
Above the mean disguise of art !

- 5 May our expanded souls disclaim
The narrow view, the selfish aim ;
But with a Christian zeal embrace
Whate'er is friendly to our race.
- 6 O Father ! grace and virtue grant ;
No more we wish, no more we want :
To know, to serve thee, and to love,
Is peace below, — is bliss above.

294

L. M.
The better Part.

- 1 BESET with snares on every hand
In life's uncertain path I stand :
Father divine ! diffuse thy light,
To guide my doubtful footsteps right.
- 2 Engage this roving, treacherous heart
Wisely to choose the better part ;
To scorn the trifles of a day,
For joys that none can take away.
- 3 Then let the wildest storms arise ;
Let tempests mingle earth and skies ;
No fatal shipwreck shall I fear,
But all my treasures with me bear.
- 4 If thou, my Father, still be nigh,
Cheerful I live, and joyful die ;
Secure, when mortal comforts flee,
To find ten thousand worlds in thee.

295

C. M.
Holiness.

- 1 O THAT the Lord would guide my ways
To keep his statutes still!
O that my God would grant me grace
To know and do his will!
- 2 O, send thy Spirit down, to write
Thy law upon my heart!
Nor let my tongue indulge deceit,
Nor act the liar's part.
- 3 Order my footsteps by thy word,
And make my heart sincere;
Let sin have no dominion, Lord,
But keep my conscience clear.
- 4 Make me to walk in thy commands;
'Tis a delightful road;
Nor let my head, or heart, or hands,
Offend against my God.

296

C. M.

- 1 O, HAPPY is the man who hears
Instruction's faithful voice;
And who celestial wisdom makes
His early, only choice!
- 2 Wisdom has treasures greater far
Than east or west unfold;
And her rewards more precious
Than is the gain of gold.
- 3 She guides the young, with innoc
In pleasure's path to tread;

CHRISTIAN LIFE.

A crown of glory she bestows
Upon the hoary head.

- 4 According as her labors rise,
So her rewards increase ;
Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
And all her paths are peace.

297

C. M.
The Good happy.

- 1 How blest is he who ne'er consents
By ill advice to walk ;
Nor stands in sinners' ways, nor sits
Where men profanely talk ;—
- 2 But makes the perfect law of God
His business and delight ;
Devoutly reads therein by day,
And meditates by night !
- 3 Like some fair tree, which, fed by streams,
With timely fruit does bend,
He still shall flourish, and success
All his designs attend.

298

C. M.
The good Man.

- HAPPY the man whose cautious steps
Still keep the golden mean ;
Whose life, by wisdom's rules well formed,
Declares a conscience clean.
- 'hat blessings bounteous Heaven bestows,
He takes with thankful heart ;
With temperance he both eats and drinks,
And gives the poor a part.

- 3 To sect or party his large soul
Disdains to be confined :
The good he loves of every name,
And prays for all mankind.
- 4 His business is to keep his heart ;
Each passion to control ;
Nobly ambitious, well to rule
The empire of his soul.
- 5 Not on the world his heart is set ;
His treasure is above ;
Nothing beneath the sovereign good
Can claim his highest love.

299

L. M.

- 1 How happy is he born or taught,
Who serveth not another's will ;
Whose armor is his honest thought,
And simple truth his highest skill ;—
- 2 Whose passions not his masters are ;
Whose soul is still prepared for death ;
Not tied unto the world with care
Of prince's ear or vulgar breath ;—
- 3 Who God doth late and early pray
More of his grace than goods to lend,
And walks with man, from day to day,
As with a brother and a friend !
- 4 This man is freed from servile bands
Of hope to rise, or fear to fall ;
Lord of himself, though not of lands,
And having nothing, yet hath all.

C. M.

- 1 How blest are they who always keep
The pure and perfect way!
Who never from the sacred paths
Of God's commandments stray!
- 2 Thrice blest! who to his righteous laws
Have still obedient been;
And have with fervent, humble zeal
His favor sought to win.

301

S. M.

- 1 THY conscience be thy crown,
Contented thoughts thy rest;
Thy heart be happy in itself,
Thy bliss be in thy breast.
- 2 Thy wishes be but few,
All easy to fulfil;
In prayer, ask thou the Lord to bend
Thy spirit to his will.
- 3 Feel thou no care for gold;
Well-doing be thy wealth;
Thy mind to thee an empire be,
And God afford thee health.

302

C. M.

The two Commandments.

- 1 THIS is the first and great command —
To love thy God above;
And this the second — As thyself
Thy neighbor thou shalt love.

Q2

- 2 "Who is my neighbor?" He who wants
The help which thou canst give;
And both the law and prophets say,
This do, and thou shalt live.

303

C. M.

- 1 Who is thy neighbor? He whom thou
Hast power to aid or bless;
Whose aching heart, or burning brow,
Thy soothing hand may press.
- 2 Thy neighbor? 'Tis the fainting poor,
Whose eye with want is dim;
O, enter thou his humble door,
With aid and peace for him.
- 3 Thy neighbor? Pass no mourner by?
Perhaps thou canst redeem
A breaking heart from misery:
Go, share thy lot with him.

304

C. M.

Love.

- 1 HAPPY the heart where graces reign,
Where love inspires the breast:
Love is the brightest of the train,
And strengthens all the rest.
- 2 Knowledge! — alas! 'tis all in vain,
And all in vain our fear;
Our stubborn sins will fight and reign,
If love be absent there.
- 3 This is the grace that lives and sings,
When faith and hope shall cease;

'Tis this shall strike our joyful strings
In the sweet realms of bliss.

- 4 Before we quite forsake our clay,
Or leave this dark abode,
May wings of love bear us away
To see our gracious God.

305

C. M.
Justice.

- 1 COME, let us search our ways, and try;
Have they been just and right?
Is the great rule of equity
Our practice and delight?
- 2 What we wou'd have our neighbor do,
Have we still done the same?
From others ne'er withheld the due
Which we from others claim?
- 3 Then may we raise our modest prayer
To God, the just and kind;
May humbly cast on him our care,
And hope his grace to find.
- 4 Religion's path they never trod,
Who equity condemn:
Nor ever are they just to God,
Who prove unjust to men.

306

8 & 7s.

- 1 "LITTLE children, love each other,"
Is the blessed Savior's rule;
Every little one is brother
To his playmates while at school.

- 2 We're all children of one Father,
The great God, who reigns above ;
Shall we quarrel ? — no — much rather
Would we be like him — all love.
- 3 He has placed us here together,
That we may be good and kind :
He is ever watching, whether
We are of one heart and mind.
- 4 Which is stronger than the other ?
He must be the weak one's friend ;
Who's more playthings than his brother ?
He'll delight to give and lend.
- 5 Selfish children's sad behavior
Shows they love themselves alone ;
But the children of a Savior
Say not any thing's their own.
- 6 All they have they share with others,
Give kind looks and gentle words :
Thus they live like happy brothers,
And are known to be the Lord's.

307

S. M.

- 1 BLEST be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love !
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.
- 2 Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayers ;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims, are one —
Our comforts and our cares.

- 3 We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual burdens bear ;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.
- 4 When we are called to part,
It gives us mutual pain ;
But we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again.
- 5 This glorious hope revives
Our courage by the way ;
While each in expectation lives,
And longs to see the day.
- 6 From sorrow, toil, and pain,
From sin, we shall be free ;
And perfect love and friendship reign
Through all eternity.

08

C. M.
Love.

- 1 How sweet, how heavenly is the sight,
When those who love the Lord
In one another's peace delight,
And so fulfil his word !
- 2 O, may we feel each brother's sigh,
And with him bear a part ;
May sorrow flow from eye to eye,
And joy from heart to heart !
- 3 Let love, in one delightful stream,
Through every bosom flow ;
And union sweet, and dear esteem,
In every action glow.

- 4 Love is the golden chain that binds
The happy souls above ;
And he's an heir to heaven that finds
His bosom glow with love.

309

L. M.

- 1 TH' uplifted eye and bended knee
Are but vain homage, Lord, to thee :
In vain our lips thy praise prolong,
The heart a stranger to the song.
- 2 The pure, the humble, contrite mind,
Sincere, and to thy will resigned,
To thee a nobler offering yields,
Than Sheba's groves or Sharon's fields.
- 3 Love God and man — this great command
Doth on eternal pillars stand :
This did thine ancient prophets teach,
And this thy Well-beloved preach.

310

L. M.

- 1 How blest are they who daily prove,
By acts of charity and love,
The fervent gratitude they owe
To Him from whom all blessings flow !
- 2 In hours of sickness, or of pain,
God will their fainting souls sustain ;
Bright hopes shall cheer the bed of death,
Sweet peace attend their parting breath.
- 3 When, summoned from the silent tomb,
Th' assembled world await their doom,

- These shall behold their Savior's face
Beaming with smiles of heavenly grace ;—
- 4 And from his lips their raptured ear
Shall this their gracious sentence hear,
"Come, O ye blessed of the Lord,
Come, and receive your bright reward."

311

Charity.

- 1 O, how can they look up to heaven,
And ask for mercy there,
Who never soothed the poor man's pang,
Nor dried the orphan's tear !
- 2 The dread Omnipotence of heaven
We every hour provoke,
Yet still the mercy of our God
Withholds th' avenging stroke.
- 3 And Christ was still the healing friend
Of poverty and pain ;
And never did imploring wretch
His garment touch in vain.
- 4 May we with humble effort take
Example from above,
And thence the active lesson learn
Of charity and love.

Love.

- 1 HAD I the tongues of Greeks and Jews,
And nobler speech than angels use,
If love be absent, I am found
Like tinkling brass, an empty sound.
- 2 Were I inspired to preach and tell
All that is done in heaven and hell,
Or could my faith the world remove,
Still I am nothing without love.
- 3 Should I distribute all my store,

Their songs of praise, their mingled vows,

On Zion's fruitful hills, —

Peace.

- 1 How beautiful the sight
Of brethren who agree
In friendship to unite,
And bonds of charity !
'Tis like the precious ointment, shed
O'er all his robes, from Aaron's head.
- 2 'Tis like the dews that fill
The cups of Hermon's flowers ;
Or Zion's fruitful hill,
Bright with the drops of showers ;
When mingling odors breathe around,
And glory rests on all the ground.
- 3 For there the Lord commands
Blessings, a boundless store,
From his unsparing hands,
Yea, life for evermore.
Thrice happy they, who meet above,
To spend eternity in love.

320

L. M.
Love.

- 1 THE God of heaven is pleased to see
A little family agree ;
And will not slight the praise they bring,
When loving children join to sing.
- 2 For love and kindness please him more
Than if we give him all our store ;
And children here, who dwell in love,
Are like his happy ones above.

3 Great God, forgive, whenever we Forget thy will and disagree ;
And grant that each of us may find
The sweet delight of being kind.

Harmony.

- 1 THE glorious universe around,
The heavens with all their train,
Sun, moon, and stars, are firmly bound
In one mysterious chain.
- 2 The earth, the ocean, and the sky,
To form one world agree ;
Where all that walk, or swim, or fly,
Compose one family.
- 3 God in creation thus displays
His wisdom and his might,
While all his works with all his ways
Harmoniously unite.
- 4 In one fraternal bond of love,
One fellowship of mind,
The saints below and saints above
Their bliss and glory find.
- 5 Lord, may our union form a part
Of that thrice-happy whole ;
Derive its pulse from thee the heart
Its life from thee the soul.

Life uncertain.

- 1 To-morrow, Lord, is thine,
Lodged in thy sovereign hand ;
And, if its sun arise and shine,
It shines by thy command.
- 2 The present moment flies,
And bears our life away ;
O, make thy servants truly wise,
That they may live to-day !
- 3 To Jesus may we fly
Swift as the morning light,
Lest life's young golden beams should die
In sudden, endless night.

7s M.
Swiftness of Time.

- 1 WHILE, with ceaseless course, the sun
Hasted through the former year,
Many souls their race have run,
Never more to meet us here!
Fixed in an eternal state,
They have done with all below;
We a little longer wait;
But how little, none can know.
- 2 As the winged arrow flies
Speedily the mark to find,—
As the lightning from the skies
Darts, and leaves no trace behind,—
Swiftly thus our fleeting days
Bear us down life's rapid stream:
Upward, Lord, our spirits raise;
All below is but a dream.
- 3 Thanks for mercies past receive,
Pardon of our sins renew;
Teach us henceforth how to live
With eternity in view.
Bless thy word to young and old;
Fill us with a Savior's love;
And, when life's short tale is told,
May we dwell with thee above.

326

L. M.

- 1 MY helper, God! I bless his name;
The same his power, his grace the same;

The tokens of his friendly care
Open, and crown, and close the year.

2 I 'midst ten thousand dangers stand,
Supported by his guardian hand ;
And see, when I survey my ways,
Ten thousand monuments of praise.

3 Thus far his arm hath led me on ;
Thus far I make his mercy known ;
And, while I tread this desert land,
New blessings shall new songs demand.

327

C. M.

1 BEHOLD! another year begins
Its little round to-day ;
Be it a year of grief or joy,
It soon will pass away.

2 Now let us heed the solemn voice
Of years already past,
And then our souls shall have no fear,
Though this should be our last.

328

C. M.

1 REMARK, my soul, the narrow bounds
Of the revolving year ;
How swift the weeks complete their rounds,
How short the months appear !

2 So fast eternity comes on,
And that important day,
When all that mortal life has done
God's judgment shall survey.

- 3 Waken, O God, my trifling heart,
Its great concern to see ;
That I may act the Christian part,
And give the year to thee.
- 4 Thus shall their course more grateful roll,
If future years arise ;
Or this shall bear my peaceful soul
To joy that never dies.

329

L. M.
Life.

- 1 LIFE is the time to serve the Lord —
The time t' insure the great reward ;
And while the lamp holds out to burn,
To thee the sinner may return.
- 2 Life is the hour that thou hast given
To fit us for the joys of heaven ;
The day of grace, and mortals may
Secure the blessings of the day.
- 3 Then what my thoughts design to do,
My hands, with all your might, pursue ;
Since no device nor work is found,
Nor faith nor hope, beneath the ground.
- 4 There are no acts of pardon passed
In the cold grave to which we haste ;
But darkness, death, and long despair
Reign in unbroken silence there.
- 5 Then the great work we have to do,
Let us with all our might pursue ;
And wisely every hour employ,
Till faith and hope are lost in joy.

330

O. M.
Frailty of Life.

- 1 THEE we adore, Eternal Name,
And humbly own to thee
How feeble is our mortal frame,
What dying worms are we.
- 2 Our wasting lives grow shorter still,
As months and days increase ;
And every beating pulse we tell
Leaves but the number less.
- 3 The year rolls round, and steals away
The breath that first it gave ;
Whate'er we do, where'er we be,
We're travelling to the grave.

- 1 WHY do we waste on trifling cares
The lives divine compassion spares,
While, thro' the various range of thought,
The one thing needful is forgot.
- 2 Our Father calls us from above ;
Our Savior pleads his dying love ;
Awakened conscience gives us pain :
Shall all these pleas unite in vain ?
- 3 Not so our dying eyes will view
The objects which we now pursue ;
Not so eternity appear,
When death's decisive hour is near.

334

C. M.

- 1 LET others boast how strong they be,
Nor death nor danger fear ;
But we'll confess, O Lord, to thee,
What feeble things we are.
- 2 Fresh as the grass our bodies stand,
And flourish bright and gay ;
A blasting wind sweeps o'er the land,
And fades the grass away.
- 3 Our life contains a thousand springs,
And dies if one be gone ;
Strange ! that a harp of thousand strings
Should keep in tune so long.
- 4 While we have breath, or use our tongues,
Our Maker we'll adore ;
His Spirit moves our heaving lungs,
Or they would breathe no more.

335

S. M.

- 1 LORD, what a feeble piece
Is this our mortal frame !
Our life, how poor a trifle 'tis,
That scarce deserves the name !
- 2 Our moments fly apace,
Nor will our minutes stay ;
Just like a flood, our hasty days
Are sweeping us away.

3 Well, if our days must fly,
We'll keep their end in sight;
We'll spend them all in wisdom's way,
And let them speed their flight.

4 They'll waft us sooner o'er
This life's tempestuous sea:
Soon we shall reach the peaceful shore
Of blest eternity.

336

*C. M.
Eternity,*

1 How long sometimes the days appear!
And weeks are long as they;
Months move as slow as if the year
Would never pass away.

2 But even years are fleeting by,
And soon must all be gone;
For, day by day, as minutes fly,
Eternity comes on.

3 Days, months, and years must have an end;
Eternity has none:
'Twill always have as long to spend,
As when it first begun.

4 Great God, I own I cannot tell
How such a thing can be;
I only pray that I may dwell
That long, long time with thee.

337

*C. M.
Judgment.*

1 And must I be to judgment brought,
To answer, in that day,

For every wicked, idle thought,
And every word I say ?

2 Yes, every secret of my heart
Shall shortly be made known,
And I receive my just desert
For all that I have done.

3 How careful, then, ought I to live !
With what religious fear !
Who such a strict account must give
For my behavior here.

Another Life.

1 THE stars are shining over head,
In the clear frosty night ;
So will they shine when we are dead,
As countless and as bright.

2 For brief the time and short the space
That e'en the proudest have,
Ere they conclude their various race
In silence and the grave.

3 But the pure soul from dust shall rise,
By our great Savior's aid,
When the last trump shall rend the skies,
And all the stars shall fade.

Through Death to Life.

1 THROUGH sorrow's night and danger's path,
Amid the deepening gloom,
We, soldiers of a heavenly King,
Are marching to the tomb.

In this our last retreat,
Unheeded, o'er our silent dust

Heaven.*

- 1 LORD, may I ne'er in youth be led
In Sin's dark path to stray,
But may I early learn to tread
In Wisdom's pleasant way.
- 2 What sorrows may my steps attend
I never can foretell ;
But since my Maker is my friend,
I know that all is well.
- 3 Father, whatever grief or ill
For me may be in store,
Make me submissive to thy will,
And I would ask no more.
- 4 Then still, as seasons hasten by,
I will for heaven prepare ;
That God may take me, when I die,
To be forever there.

342

Death.

- 1 VITAL spark of heavenly flame,
Quit, O, quit this mortal frame !
Trembling, hoping, lingering, flying,
O, the pain, the bliss of dying !
Cease, fond nature, cease thy strife,
And let me languish into life.
- 2 Hark ! they whisper ! angels say,
" Sister spirit, come away."
What is this absorbs me quite,
Steals my senses, shuts my sight,

3 The world recedes ; it disappears
Heaven opens on my eyes ; my ear
With sounds seraphic ring.
Lend, lend your wings ; I mount,
O grave, where is thy victory ?
O death, where is thy sting ?

The moon-beam falls on me
As silently, as silently
It falls on land and sea.
2 O silently, still silently
Creation's wings wax bright
As silently, as silently,
Bright morn succeeds to night
3 O, let my soul, thus silently,
Depart from earthly clay ;
Thus silently and beamingly
Thy realms of day.

God,
Away from yon heaven, that blissful abode !
Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,
And the noontide of glory eternally reigns ;
- 3 Where the saints of all ages in harmony
meet,
Their Savior and brethren transported to

While the anthems of rapture unceasingly roll,
And the smile of the Lord is the life of the soul.

The short-lived beauties die away.
- 3 So blooms the human face divine,
When youth its pride of beauty shows :
Fairer than spring the colors shine,
And sweeter than the virgin rose.

Death of an Infant.

- 1 As the sweet flower that scents the morn,
But withers in the rising day,
Thus lovely was this infant's dawn,
Thus swiftly fled its life away.
- 2 It died ere its expanding soul
Had ever burnt with wrong desires,
Had ever spurned at Heaven's control,
Or ever quenched its sacred fires.
- 3 It died to sin, it died to cares,
But for a moment felt the rod :
O mourner ! such, the Lord declares,
Such are the children of our God !

Funeral Hymn.

- 1 CLAY to clay, and dust to dust !
Let them mingle — for they must !
Give to earth the earthly clod,
For the spirit's fled to God.
- 2 Never more shall midnight's damp
Darken round this mortal lamp ;
Never more shall noonday's glance
Search this mortal countenance.
- 3 Deep the pit, and cold the bed,
Where the spoils of death are laid :
Stiff the curtains, chill the gloom,
Of man's melancholy tomb.
- 4 Look above ; the spirit's risen ;
Death cannot the soul imprison :
'Tis in heaven that spirits dwell,
Glorious, though invisible.
- 5 Thither let us turn our view ;
Peace is there, and comfort too :
There shall those we love be found,
Tracing joy's eternal round.

355

C. M.

- 1 DEATH has been here, and borne away
A brother from our side :
Just in the morning of his day,
As young as we, he died.
- 2 Not long ago, he filled his place,
And sat with us to learn :

But he has run his mortal race,
And never can return.

3 Perhaps our time may be as short ;
Our days may fly as fast :
O Lord, impress the solemn thought,
That this may be our last !

4 All needful strength is thine to give ;
To thee our souls apply
For grace to teach us how to live ;
O, make us fit to die.

356

12s & 11s.

1 THOU art gone to the grave — but we will
not deplore thee,
Though sorrows and darkness encompass
the tomb ;
The Savior has passed through its portals
before thee,
And the lamp of his love is thy guide
through the gloom.

2 Thou art gone to the grave — we no longer
behold thee,
Nor tread the rough paths of the world
by thy side ;
But the wide arms of mercy are spread to enfold thee,
And sinners may hope, since the Savior
hath died.

- 3 Thou art gone to the grave — and its mansion forsaking,
Perchance thy weak spirit in doubt lingered long ;
But the sunshine of heaven beamed bright
on thy waking,
And the sound thou didst hear was the seraphim's song.
- 4 Thou art gone to the grave — but we will
not deplore thee,
Since God was thy ransom, thy guardian,
thy guide ;
He gave thee — he took thee — and he will restore thee,
And death hath no sting, since the Savior
hath died.

357

C. M.

- 1 FAREWELL, dear friend ! a long farewell,
For we shall meet no more,
Till we are raised with thee to dwell
On Zion's happier shore.
- 2 Our friend and brother, lo ! is dead !
The cold and lifeless clay
Has made in dust its silent bed,
And there it must decay.
- 3 But is he dead ? — no, no ; he lives !
His happy spirit flies
To heaven above, and there receives
The long-expected prize.

- 4 Farewell, dear friend, again farewell ;
 Soon we shall rise to thee ;
 And when we meet, no tongue can tell
 How great our joys shall be.

358

8s & 7s.

- 1 CEASE, ye mourners, cease to languish
 O'er the grave of those you love ;
 Pain, and death, and night, and anguish,
 Enter not the world above.
- 2 While our silent steps are straying,
 Lonely, through night's deepening shade,
 Glory's brightest beams are playing
 Round th' immortal spirit's head.
- 3 Light and peace at once deriving
 From the hand of God most high,
 In his glorious presence living,
 They shall never, never die !
- 4 Endless pleasure, pain excluding,
 Sickness there no more can come ;
 There, no fear of woe, intruding,
 Sheds o'er heaven a moment's gloom.
- 5 Now, ye mourners, cease to languish
 O'er the graves of those ye love ;
 Far removed from pain and anguish,
 They are chanting hymns above.

"Hence to God."

- 1 CHILDREN of the heavenly King,
 As ye journey, sweetly sing ;

Sing your Savior's worthy praise,
Glorious in his works and ways.

- 2 Ye are travelling home to God,
In the way the fathers trod ;
They are happy now — and ye
Soon their happiness shall see.
- 3 Shout, ye little flock, and blest ;
You on Jesus' throne shall rest :
There your seat is now prepared —
There your kingdom and reward.
- 4 Lord, submissive make us go,
Gladly leaving all below ;
Only thou our leader be,
And we still will follow thee.

Say, "Blessed is the doom
Of those whose trust is in the Lord,
When sinking to the tomb!"

And I the words repeat —
"Blessed are they," — for, after toil,
To mortals rest is sweet.

My Guide, my Guard from sin,

Heaven.

- 1 PROVIDENCE, profusely kind,
Wheresoe'er you turn your eyes,
Bids you with a grateful mind
View a thousand blessings rise.
- 2 But, perhaps, some friendly voice
Softly whispers to your mind —
Make not these alone your choice ;
Heaven has blessings more refined.
- 3 Thankful own what you enjoy ;
But a changing world, like this,
Where a thousand fears annoy,
Cannot give you perfect bliss.
- 4 Perfect bliss resides above,
Far above yon azure sky ;
Bliss that merits all your love,
Merits every anxious sigh.
- 5 What like this has earth to give ?
O ye righteous ! in your breast
Let the admonition live,
Nor on earth desire to rest.

Or your eye emits a tear,
Let your wishes rise on high,
Ardent rise to bliss sincere.

- 1 HARK, from that glorious world, what songs
Those heavenly voices raise!
Ten thousand, thousand infant tongues
Unite in perfect praise.
- 2 Those are the hymns that we shall know,
If Jesus we obey;
That is the place where we shall go,
If found in wisdom's way.
- 3 This is the joy we ought to seek,
And make our chief concern;
For this we come from week to week,
To read, and hear, and learn.
- 4 Soon will our earthly race be run,
Our mortal frame decay;
Children and teachers, one by one,

C. M.

- 1 THERE is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign ;
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.
- 2 There everlasting spring abides,
And never-withering flowers ;
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.
- 3 Sweet fields, beyond the swelling flood,
Stand dressed in living green :
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.
- 4 But timorous mortals start and shrink
To cross this narrow sea,
And linger, shivering on the brink,
And fear to launch away.
- 5 O, could we make our doubts remove, —
Those gloomy doubts that rise, —
And see the Canaan, that we love,
With unobscured eyes ; —
- 6 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er, —
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore,

When life declines, recalls again
The years that time has cast behind,

- 1 O, WHERE shall rest be found,
Rest for the weary soul ?
Twere vain the ocean depths to sound,
Or pierce to either pole.
- 2 The world can never give
The bliss for which we sigh ;

'Tis not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die.

3 Beyond this vale of tears,
There is a life above,
Unmeasured by the flight of years ;
And all that life is love.

7s & 6s.

1 RISE, my soul, and stretch thy wings ;
Thy better portion trace ;
Rise, from transitory things,
Towards heaven, thy native place.

Time shall soon this earth remove ;
Rise, my soul, and haste away
To seats prepared above.

2 Rivers to the ocean run,
Nor stay in all their course ;
Fire, ascending, seeks the sun ;
Both speed them to their source.

Upward tends to his abode,
To rest in his embrace.

Across my peaceful breast.

Land of the pilgrims' pride;

- 2 My native country! thee —
Land of the noble free —
Thy name I love:
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills,
Like that above.
- 3 Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song.

Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

- 4 Our fathers' God ! to thee —
Author of liberty ! —
To thee we sing ;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light ;
Protect us by thy might,

From every cumbering care,
And spend the hours of setting day
In humble, grateful prayer.
- 2 I love in solitude to shed

And all his promises to plead,
Where none but God can hear.
- 3 I love by faith to take a view
Of brighter scenes of heaven ;
Such prospects oft my faith renew,
While here by tempests driven.

May its departing ray
Be calm as this impressive hour,
And lead to endless day.

When we bend the pliant knee,
When in private meditation, —

Think of Jesus Christ our Friend,
Who appeared a blessed Savior,
To guide us to our happy end.

Christ our Example in Suffering.

Ye that feel temptation's power;
Your Redeemer's conflict see;
Watch with him one bitter hour.
Turn not from his griefs away;
Learn of Jesus Christ to pray.

There, admiring at his feet,
Mark that miracle of time,
God's own sacrifice complete;
"It is finished," hear him cry;
Learn of Jesus Christ to die.

Whose glories shine through endless days !
- 2 Ashamed of Jesus! sooner far
Let evening blush to own its star ;
He sheds the beams of life divine
On this benighted soul of mine.
- 3 Ashamed of Jesus! that dear friend,
On whom my hopes of heaven depend ;
No, when I blush, be this my shame,
That I no more revere his name.
- 4 Ashamed of Jesus ! yes, I may,
When I've no guilt to wash away ;
No tear to dry, no good to crave,
No fears to calm, no soul to save.

Till then I boast my Savior slain ;
And O, may this my glory be,
That Christ is not ashamed of me !

For us he dies in woe ;
See from his deep and bleeding wounds
The streams of crimson flow !
- 2 Now death's pale ensigns o'er his face
And trembling lips are spread !
The light forsakes his closing eyes,
And life his fainting head.
- 3 " 'Tis finished," was his latest voice ;
Those sacred accents o'er,

He bows his head, gives up the ghost,
And suffers pain no more.

- 4 'Tis finished — the Messiah dies
For sins, but not his own ;
The great redemption is complete,
And death is overthrown !

Autumn Warnings.

- 1 SEE the leaves around us falling,
Dry and withered to the ground ;
Thus to thoughtless mortals calling
In a sad and solemn sound :
- 2 "Ye, on length of days presuming,
Who the paths of pleasure tread,
See us, late in beauty blooming,
Numbered now among the dead.
- 3 "Yearly in our course returning,
Messengers of transient stay,

O, receive our friendly warning —
All things here must pass away.

- 4 "On the tree of life eternal
Let your highest hopes be stayed ;
This alone, forever vernal,
Bears the leaves which never fade."

7s.
Spring.

- 1 PLEASING Spring again is here ;
Trees and fields in bloom appear :
Hark ! the birds, in artless lays,
Warble their Creator's praise.
- 2 Thus the soul in Winter mourns,
Till the Lord, the sun, returns ;
Till the Spirit's gentle rain
Bids the heart revive again.
- 3 Father, may thy gracious voice
Cause my spirit to rejoice ;
For thy presence can restore
Life to what seemed dead before.
- 4 Lord, I long to be at home,
Where these changes never come ;
Where the blest no Winter fear ;
Where 'tis Spring throughout the year.

406

L. M.
Divine Protection.

- 1 THOU, Lord, through every changing scene,
Hast to the saints a refuge been ;
Through every age, eternal God !
Their pleasing home, their safe abode.

- 2 In thee our fathers sought their rest,
And were with thy protection blest ;
Behold their sons, a feeble race !
We come to fill our fathers' place.
- 3 Through all the thorny paths we tread,
Ere we are numbered with the dead ;
When friends desert, and foes invade,
Be thou our all-sufficient aid !
- 4 And when this pilgrimage is o'er,
And we must dwell on earth no more,
To thee, great God ! may we ascend,
And find an everlasting Friend.

407

H. M.

God our Preserver in Times of Distress.

- 1 UPWARD I lift my eyes ;
From God is all my aid ;
The God who built the skies,
And earth and nature made :
God is the tower | His grace is nigh
To which I fly ; | In every hour.
- 2 Our feet shall never slide,
And fall in fatal snares,
Since he, our guard and guide,
Defends us from our fears.
Those wakeful eyes, | In every place
Which never sleep, | Thy children keep.
- 3 No burning heats by day,
Nor blasts of evening air,
Can take our health away,
If God be with us there.

He is our sun,		Above our head,
And he our shade,		At night and noon.

4 Has he not given his word
 To save our souls from death ?
 And we can trust thee, Lord,
 To keep our mortal breath :
 We'll go and come, | Till from on high
 Nor fear to die, | Thou call us home.

408

C. M.
Faith.

- 1 FAITH is the brightest evidence
 Of things beyond our sight ;
 It pierces through the veil of sense,
 And dwells in heavenly light.
- 2 It sets time past in present view,
 Brings distant prospects home,
 Of things a thousand years ago,
 Or thousand years to come.
- 3 Abra'm obeyed the Lord's command,
 From his own country driven ;
 By faith he sought a promised land,
 But found his rest in heaven.
- 4 Thus through life's pilgrimage we stray,
 The promise in our eye ;
 By faith we walk the narrow way,
 That leads to joy on high.

409

C. M.
A living and dead Faith.

- 1 MISTAKEN souls ! who dream of heaven,
 And make their empty boast

- Of inward joys and sins forgiven,
While they are slaves to lust.
- 2 Vain are our fancy's airy flights,
If faith be cold and dead ;
None but a living power unites
To Christ, the living head.
- 3 'Tis faith that changes all the heart ;
'Tis faith which works by love ;
That bids all sinful joys depart,
And lifts the thoughts above.
- 4 'Tis faith which conquers earth and hell
By a celestial power ;
This is the grace which shall prevail
In the decisive hour.

410

S. M.

Faith without Works, dead.

- 1 As bodies when the soul is fled,
As barren trees, decayed and dead,
Is faith, a hopeless, lifeless thing,
If not of righteous deeds the spring.
- 2 One cup of healing oil and wine,
One tear-drop shed on mercy's shrine,
Is thrice more grateful, Lord, to thee,
Than lifted eye or bended knee.
- 3 In true and genuine faith, we trace
The source of every Christian grace ;
Within the pious heart it plays,
A living fount of joy and praise.
- 4 Kind deeds of peace and love betray
Where'er the stream hath found its way ;

But where these spring not, fresh and fair,
The stream has never wandered there.

411

L. M.
Candor.

- 1 ALL-SEEING God! 'tis thine to know
The springs whence wrong opinions flow;
To judge, from principles within,
When frailty errs, and when we sin.
- 2 Who among men, great Lord of all!
Thy servant to his bar shall call?
Judge him, for modes of faith, thy foe,
And doom him to the realms of woe?
- 3 Who with another's eye can read,
Or worship by another's creed?
Trusting thy grace, we form our own;
And bow to thy commands alone.
- 4 If wrong, correct; accept, if right;
While faithful we improve our light,
Condemning none, but zealous still
To learn and follow all thy will.

412

L. M.
Christian Zeal.

- 1 GREAT God! whose all-pervading eye
Sees every passion in my soul,
When sunk too low, or raised too high,
Teach me those passions to control.
- 2 Temper the fervors of my frame;
Be charity their constant spring;
And O, let no unhallowed flame
Pollute the offerings I bring.

- 3 Let peace with piety unite
To mend the bias of my will;
While hope and heaven-eyed faith excite,
And wisdom regulates, my zeal ;—
- 4 That wisdom which to meekness turns,
Wisdom descending from above ;
And let my zeal, whene'er it burns,
Be kindled by the fire of love.

413

L. M.
Penitence.

- 1 OPPRESSED with guilt, or grief, or care,
Great God ! thy humble suppliants hear ;
Though sunk, we ne'er can sink so low,
But thou canst hear the voice of woe.
- 2 Shouldst thou against each evil deed
In strict severity proceed ;
By merit, without mercy tried,
None could be clear and justified.
- 3 But thou forgiveness dost proclaim,
That men may turn and fear thy name ;
To thy rich grace, O Lord ! we fly,
And on thy promises rely.
- 4 Ye contrite hearts, who guilt deplore,
Come, seek his face, and sin no more ;
Then shall we know that God is kind,
And full redemption with him find.

414

L. M.
Penitence.

- 1 SHOW pity, Lord ! O Lord, forgive !
Let a repenting sinner live ;

- Are not thy mercies large and free ?
May not the contrite trust in thee ?
- 2 With shame my numerous sins I trace,
Against thy law, against thy grace ; [hear,
And, though my prayer thou shouldst not
My doom is just, and thou art clear.
- 3 Yet save a penitent, O Lord !
Whose hope, still hovering round thy word,
Seeks for some precious promise there,
Some sure support against despair.
- 4 My sins are great, but don't surpass
The riches of eternal grace ;
Great God ! thy nature hath no bound,
So let thy pardoning love be found.
- 5 Then shall thy love inspire my tongue ;
Salvation shall be all my song ;
And every power shall join to bless
The Lord, my strength and righteousness.

415

L. M.
Contentment.

- 1 BE still, my heart ! these anxious cares
To thee are burdens, thorns, and snares ;
They cast dishonor on thy Lord,
And contradict his gracious word.
- 2 Brought safely by his hand thus far,
Why wilt thou now give place to fear ?
How canst thou want if he provide,
Or lose thy way with such a guide ?
- 3 Did ever trouble yet befall,
And he refuse to hear thy call ?

And has he not his promise passed,
That thou shalt overcome at last?

- 4 He who has helped me hitherto
Will help me all my journey through,
And give me daily cause to raise,
New trophies to his endless praise.

416

C. M.
Contentment.

- 1 My God! the Father of mankind!
Of life the only spring!
Creator of unnumbered worlds!
Supreme, eternal King! —
- 2 Drive from the confines of my heart
Impenitence and pride;
Nor let me in forbidden paths
With thoughtless sinners glide.
- 3 Whate'er thine all-discerning eye
Sees for thy creature fit,
I'll bless the good, and to the ill
Contentedly submit.
- 4 Feed me with necessary food:
I ask not wealth nor fame:
Give me an eye to see thy works,
A heart to bless thy name.
- 5 Still let my days serenely pass
Without remorse or care;
And growing holiness my soul
For life's last hour prepare.

417

L. M.

Anxiety removed.

- 1 WHY sinks my weak, desponding mind?
Why heaves my heart the anxious sigh?
Can sovereign goodness be unkind?
Am I not safe, if God be nigh?
- 2 'Tis he supports the fainting frame;
On him alone my hopes recline;
The wondrous glories of his name, [shine!
How wide they spread, how bright they
- 3 My God! if thou art mine indeed,
Then I have all my heart can crave;
A present help in times of need,
Still kind to hear, and strong to save.
- 4 Forgive my doubts, O gracious Lord,
And calm the sorrows of my breast;
Speak to my heart the healing word,
That thou art mine, and I am blest.

418

S. M.

Anxiety reproved.

- 1 WHY do I thus perplex
My life, a breath of air,
With fears of distant ills, and vex
My heart with fruitless care?
- 2 Can thought and toil increase
My days' appointed sum?
Why waste I then my time, my peace,
To hoard for days to come?
- 3 To him these low desires,
This sordid gain I leave,

Who to no higher good aspires,
Than what this world can give.

4 To nobler work applied,
My soul shall upward climb ;
And trust my Father to provide
The needful things of time.

419

L. M.
Holy Resolution.

- 1 I would resolve, with all my heart,
With all my powers, to serve the Lord ;
Nor from his precepts e'er depart,
Whose service is a rich reward.
- 2 O, be his service all my joy ;
Around let my example shine,
Till others love the best employ,
And join in labors so divine !
- 3 Be this the purpose of my soul,
My solemn, my determined choice,
To yield to his supreme control,
And in his kind commands rejoice !
- 4 O, may I never faint nor tire,
Nor wander from thy sacred ways !
Great God, accept my soul's desire,
And give me strength to live thy praise

420

C. M.
Perseverance.

- 1 REJOICE, believer, in the Lord,
Who makes your cause his own ;
The hope that's built upon his word
Can ne'er be overthrown.

- 2 Though many foes beset your road,
And feeble is your arm,
Your life is hid with Christ in God,
Beyond the reach of harm.
- 3 Weak as you are, you shall not faint ;
Or, fainting, shall not die ;
For God, the strength of every saint,
Will aid you from on high.
- 4 Though sometimes unperceived by sense,
Faith sees him always near,
A Guide, a Glory, a Defence ;
Then what have you to fear ?

421

L. M.
Importance of Time.

- 1 TIME, time ! how few thy value weigh ;
How few will estimate a day !
Days, months, and years are rolling on,
The soul neglected and undone.
- 2 In painful cares or empty joys
Our life its precious hours destroys ;
Whilst death stands watching at our side,
Eager to stop the living tide.
- 3 This season of your being, know,
Is given to you, your seeds to sow ;
Wisdom and folly's differing grain
In future worlds are bliss and pain.
- 4 Then let me every day review,
Idle or busy, search it through ;
And, whilst probation's minutes last,
Let every day amend the past.

422

C. M.
Man's Mortality.

- 1 TEACH me the measure of my days,
Thou Maker of my frame !
I would survey life's narrow space,
And learn how frail I am.
- 2 A span is all that we can boast ;
How short the fleeting time !
Man is but vanity and dust
In all his flower and prime.
- 3 What should I wish or wait for, then,
From creatures, earth and dust ?
They make our expectations vain,
And disappoint our trust.
- 4 Now I forbid my earnest hope,
My fond desires recall ;
I give my mortal interest up,
And make my God my all.

423

C. M.
Man accountable.

- 1 THE time draws near when every soul
Its last account shall give ;
When its whole life shall be surveyed
By him who bade it live.
- 2 How many talents, O my God,
Hast thou bestowed on me !
And yet how few can there be found
Devoted, Lord, to thee !
- 3 My health, my time, my worldly store,
And thy more precious word,

Thy talents are, for which I must Account to thee, my Lord.

- 4 O may the slothful servant's doom
My earnest care excite ;
Each talent may I well improve,
And in thy word delight.

424

C. M.
The Day of Account.

- 1 THE day approacheth, O my soul,
The great, decisive day,
Which from the bounds of mortal life
Shall bear thee far away.
- 2 Another day more awful dawns,
And, lo ! the Judge appears !
Ye heavens, retire before his face,
And sink, ye darkened stars.
- 3 Yet does one short, preparing hour
Of precious life remain ;
Awake, my soul, with all thy power,
Nor let it pass in vain.
- 4 For this, thy temple, Lord, we throng ;
For this, the board surround ;
There may our service be approved,
And with thy presence crowned.

425

C. P. M.
Judgment.

- 1 O God, mine inmost soul convert,
And deeply on my thoughtful heart
Eternal things impress ;

Give me to feel their solemn weight,
And tremble on the brink of fate,
And wake to righteousness.

2 Before me place, in dread array,
The pomp of that tremendous day,
When thou with clouds shalt come
To judge the nations at thy bar ;
And tell me, Lord, shall I be there
To meet a joyful doom ?

3 Be this my one great business here
With serious industry and fear,
Eternal bliss t'insure ;
Thine utmost counsel to fulfil,
And suffer all thy righteous will,
And to the end endure.

426

L. M.

Warnings of Mortality.

1 THAT solemn hour will soon appear, —
Swift on the wings of time it flies, —
When all that pains or pleases here
Will vanish from my closing eyes.

2 Death calls my friends, my neighbors hence,
And none resists the fatal dart ;
Continual warnings strike my sense,
And shall they fail to strike my heart ?

3 Think, O my soul ! how much depends
On the short period of to-day ;
Shall time, which heaven in mercy lends,
Be negligently thrown away ?

4 Thy remnant minutes strive to use ;
Awake ; rouse every active power ;

And not in dreams and trifles lose
This little, this important hour !

- 5 Lord of my life ! inspire my heart
With heavenly ardor, grace divine ;
Nor let thy presence e'er depart,
For strength, and life, and death are thine.

427

L. M.
Seeking divine Aid.

- 1 My God ! whene'er my longing heart
Its grateful tribute would impart,
In vain my tongue, with feeble aim,
Attempts the glories of thy name.
- 2 In vain my boldest thoughts arise ;
I sink to earth, and lose the skies ;
Yet I may still thy grace implore,
And low in dust thy name adore.
- 3 O, let thy grace my heart inspire,
And raise each languid, weak desire ;
Thy grace, which condescends to meet
The sinner prostrate at thy feet !
- 4 With humble fear let love unite,
And mix devotion with delight ;
Then shall thy name be all my joy,
Thy praise, my constant, blest employ.

428

L. M.
Omniscience of God.

- 1 LORD, thou hast searched and seen me
through ;
Thine eye commands, with piercing view,
My rising and my resting hours,
My heart and flesh, with all their powers.

- 2 My thoughts, before they are my own,
Are to my God distinctly known ;
He knows the words I mean to speak
Ere from my opening lips they break.
- 3 Within thy circling power I stand ;
On every side I find thy hand ;
Awake, asleep, at home, abroad,
I am surrounded still with God.
- 4 Amazing knowledge ! vast and great !
What large extent, what lofty height !
My soul, with all the powers I boast,
Is in the boundless prospect lost.

429

L. M.
The Fear of God.

- 1 GREAT Author of all nature's frame,
Holy and reverend is thy name ;
Against thee who shall lift his hand ?
Before thy terrors who can stand ?
- 2 But blest are they, O gracious Lord,
Who fear thy name and keep thy word ;
Thy wisdom guides, thy power defends
Their life, till life its journey ends.
- 3 O that my soul, with awful sense
Of thy transcendent excellence,
May close the day, the day begin,
Watchful against each darling sin.
- 4 Never, O never from my heart
May this great principle depart ;
But act with unabating power
Within me, to my latest hour.

430

L. M.
Divine Light implored.

- 1 O SOURCE of uncreated light !
By whom the worlds were raised from night,
Come, visit every pious mind ;
Come, pour thy joys on human kind.
- 2 Plenteous in grace, descend from high,
Rich in thy matchless energy ;
From sin and sorrow set us free,
And make us temples worthy thee.
- 3 Thrice holy fount ! thrice holy fire !
Our hearts with heavenly love inspire ;
Our frailties help, our hearts control ;
Subdue the senses to the soul.
- 4 Chase from our path each noxious foe,
And peace, the fruit of love, bestow ;
And, lest our feet from wisdom stray,
Protect and guide us in our way.

431

C. M.
Submission.

- 1 WHEN present sufferings pain our hearts,
Or future terrors rise,
And light and hope almost depart
From these dejected eyes, —
- 2 Thy powerful word supports our hopes,
Rich cordial of the mind !
And bears our fainting spirits up,
And bids us wait resigned.
- 3 And O, whate'er of earthly bliss
Thy providence denies,

Accepted at thy throne of grace,
Let this petition rise:—

- 4 Give us a calm, a thankful heart,
From every murmur free:
The blessings of thy grace impart,
And make us live to thee.
- 5 Let the blest hope that we are thine,
Our path of life attend;
Thy presence through our journey shine,
And crown our journey's end.

432

L. M.
Death of an Infant.

- 1 SURE, to the mansions of the blest,
When infant innocence ascends,
Some angel, brighter than the rest,
The spotless spirit's flight attends.
- 2 That inextinguishable beam,
With dust united at our birth,
Sheds a more dim, discolored gleam,
The more it lingers upon earth.
- 3 But when the Lord of mortal breath
Decrees his bounty to resume,
And points the silent shaft of death
Which speeds an infant to the tomb,—
- 4 No passion fierce, no low desire,
Has quenched the radiance of the flame;
Back to its God the living fire
Reverts, unclouded, as it came.
- 5 Then at the Heavenly Father's hand,
Nearest the throne of living light,
Behold the infant seraph stand,
And dazzling shine where all are bright.

433

L. M.
God our Father.

- 1 Is there a lone and dreary hour
When worldly pleasures lose their power?
My Father! let me fly to thee,
And set each thought of darkness free.
- 2 Is there a time of racking grief
That scorns the prospect of relief?
My Father! break the cheerless gloom,
And bid my heart its calm resume.
- 3 Is there an hour of peace and joy,
When hope is all my soul's employ?
My Father! still my hopes will roam,
Until they rest with thee, their home.
- 4 The noontide blaze, the midnight scene,
The dawn, or twilight's sweet serene;
The glow of life, the dying hour,
Shall own my Father's grace and power.

434

C. M.
Nativity of Christ.

- 1 WHILE shepherds watched their flocks by
All seated on the ground, [night,
The angel of the Lord came down,
And glory shone around.
- 2 "Fear not," said he, — for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind, —
"Glad tidings of great joy I bring
To you and all mankind.
- 3 "To you, in David's town, this day
Is born, of David's line,
The Savior, who is Christ the Lord;
And this shall be the sign: —

- 4 "The heavenly babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid."
- 5 Thus spake the seraph, and forthwith
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels, praising God, and thus
Address their joyful song:—
- 6 "All glory be to God on high,
And to the earth be peace!
Good will henceforth, from heaven to men,
Begin and never cease!"

435

7s M.
Christian Farewell.

- 1 CHRISTIANS! brethren! ere we part,
Every voice and every heart
Join, and to our Father raise
One last hymn of grateful praise.
- 2 Though we here should meet no more,
Yet there is a brighter shore;
There, released from toil and pain,
There we all may meet again.
- 3 Now, to him who reigns in heaven
Be eternal glory given;
Grateful for thy love divine,
O may all our hearts be thine!

CHANTS.

1.

PRAISE ye the Lord — O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good: for his mercy endureth forever.

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting; and let all the people say, Amen. Praise ye the Lord.

2.

O PRAISE God in his holiness; praise him in the firmament of his power;

Praise him for his noble acts; praise him according to his excellent greatness;

Praise him in the sound of the trumpet; praise him upon the lute, and harp;

Praise him in the cymbals, and dances; praise him on strings, and pipes;

Let every thing that hath breath praise the Lord; praise the Lord.

3.

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto thy name, O Most High;

To tell of thy loving kindness early in the morning, and of thy truth in the night season;

Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the lute; upon a loud instrument, and upon the harp;

For thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy works; and I will rejoice in giving praise for the operations of thy hands.

4.

REPENT ye, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

I will arise and go to my Father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

5.

I ACKNOWLEDGE my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me.

Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

6.

God be merciful to us, and bless us, and show us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us ;

That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations.

Let the people praise thee, O God ; yea, let all the people praise thee.

O let the nations rejoice and be glad ; for thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

Let the people praise thee, O God ; yea, let all the people praise thee.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase ; and God, even our own God, shall give us his blessing.

God shall bless us ; and all the ends of the world shall fear him.
